

Tables

2.1	Number of persons aged 60 years or over in 2017 and 2050	page 23
2.2	Projected number of people aged 65 years or over in Republic of Korea under different demographic assumptions, 2020–2040 (millions)	23
3.1	The use of means testing to determine level of government support for long-term care	79
3.2	Treatment of assets in long-term care benefits and schemes that apply assets tests (selected countries and/or regions with available information)	82
3.3	Characteristics of populations eligible and non-eligible for home-based formal long-term care	87
3.4	The impact of eligibility for long-term care on depressive symptoms and psychological wellbeing	95
3.5	Needs assessments in use in EU member states and OECD countries	102
3.6	Clinical profiles evaluated under the eligibility rules of Belgium and Germany	113
4.1	Type of long-term care system and key country characteristics	132
7.1	Summary of evidence about access to long-term care and health care utilisation	244
7.2	Case examples of integration between long-term care and health care	249
8.1	Concentration indices of distribution of home care use, OOP payments for home care and catastrophic payments by country	281
8.2	Reductions in labour supply and equivalised household income after becoming a carer	287
8.3	Impoverishment and poverty rates in connection with caregiving	289