HEART WEEK 2012

Dear Colleague,

We would like to take this opportunity to provide you with advance notice of Heart Week 2012, which will include two conferences in close proximity. The 12th International Symposium on Congenital Heart Disease (CHD12) will be held in St. Petersburg Feb. 17 – 21, immediately preceding the 16th Annual Update on Pediatric and Congenital Cardiovascular Disease Feb. 22 – 26 at Loews Portofino Bay Hotel at Universal Orlando.® As course directors, we plan the meetings together, in order to be complimentary in focus and with minimal overlap of topics.

For those attending both meetings:

- Complimentary transportation will be available Feb. 21 for the 90 minute trip from St. Petersburg to Orlando.
- A $50 discounted registration will be offered if you attend both meetings. To receive the discount please email cme@allkids.org.

Plan your itinerary to arrive in Tampa (TPA) and depart from Orlando (MCO), and take advantage of these two post-graduate courses at two wonderful venues in the sunshine state.

We hope to see you there.
