

GRANTS, AWARDS, PRIZES

American Political Science Association Congressional Fellowship Program

Political scientists who have completed or are about to complete their Ph.D. and journalists with a bachelor's degree and at least two years' professional experience are eligible for a 9 month award of $6,000. Preference is given to teachers or prospective teachers, and U.S. citizenship is required, except for Asian fellows. Deadline for application is December 1st. Further details from: Director, Congressional Fellowship Program. American Political Science Association, 1527 New Hampshire Ave N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

Fulbright Hays Program

U.S. Government Grants under the Fulbright-Hays Act are available to North American scholars for University lecturing and post doctoral research in a large number of countries. Enquiries to: Executive Secretary. Committee on the International Exchange of Persons, Conference Board of Associated Research Councils, 2101 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20418.

Ford Foundation Grants

1) The Joint Committee on Latin American Studies, with the Social Science Research Council and the American Council of Learned Societies offer post doctoral research grants to scholars in the social studies, the humanities and arts, law, and administrative science. Special collaborative grants are also offered for joint work in these fields by North American and Latin American scholars. For further information write to: SSRC, 230 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

2) A limited number of Research and Travel Grants are available to scholars and professionals for research in Cuba. There is no restriction as to disciplinary field. Write to: Ford Foundation, Office for Latin America and the Caribbean, 320 East 43rd Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

3) The Ford Foundation offers fellowships to full time faculty members of U.S. and Canadian graduate departments of economics, political science or sociology for full time research during a one year period. Direct applications are not accepted, nominations must be submitted by the chairman of the department. Write to: Ford Foundation, Fellowship Program in Economics, Political Science and Sociology, 320 East 43rd Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Foreign Area Fellowship Program

Research Training and Internship opportunities in Latin America and the Caribbean are available to qualified individuals in the fields of Agriculture, Business and Public Administration, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, the Natural and Physical Sciences, Social Sciences, Library Sciences and the Humanities. Applicants must be citizens of the U.S., Canada or the U.K. and be about to or have recently gained a Ph.D., or hold a final professional degree. Applications from U.S. and Canadian nationals should be received by November 1st. Write to: Foreign Area Fellowship Program, 110 East 59th Street, New York, NY 10022.

NDEA grants for Intensive Foreign Language Courses

Graduates and undergraduates are eligible for 1,000 National Defense Education Act Title VI awards in non-western language and area studies through 21 NDEA summer programs. Institutions offering courses of interest to Latin Americanists are: Cornell University—Quechua (see section on Special Courses and Seminars); the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87106 and the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin 53706—Portuguese. Admission standards, academic credits and fees are determined by each institution. Participation in the programs is not restricted to NDEA recipients. Applications for an NDEA award and for information about a specific program should be made to the sponsoring institution; for general information write to: Division of Area Studies, Institute of International Studies, Office of Education, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D.C. 20202.

SSRC Research Training Fellowships

Among SSRC-sponsored scholarships are a number of Research Training Fellowships for supplementary training outside the scope of the usual doctoral program in the student's major discipline. These are tenable at pre or post-doctoral stages, with stipends varying accordingly. Preference will be given to "innovative proposals by candidates who have already demonstrated unusual aptitude for research." Write: SSRC, 230 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Premio América Latina 1970

The Fundación Ottocar Rosarios of Buenos Aires offers each year a prize of $1,000, with gold medals and diplomas for the ten runners up for the best article on Latin American Unity published between August 1st 1969 and June 30, 1970 in a review, periodical or journal of any Latin American country. The article must be at least 1,200 words length. Details from: Fundación Ottocar

Rosarios, Premio America Latina-Diagonal Norte 725, Buesnos Aires, República, Argentina.

Mexican Institute of Anthropology and History

Four prizes will be awarded annually for outstanding research in the fields of anthropology and history. A gold medal and 10,000 pesos will be given for the best research carried out in Mexico by Mexican citizens or foreigners resident in that country. The best research carried out outside Mexico on a Mexican theme will be rewarded with a gold medal. Applications and manuscripts should be submitted during January of the year in which the prize is to be awarded.

John Carter Brown Library

Graduate and post graduate fellowships are awarded by the John Carter Brown Library to encourage research by mature scholars and graduate students interested in the early history of the Americas. The awards are open to students in all fields of study. The graduate fellowship, normally held for 12 months beginning July 1st is to be held by a student who has been accepted as a candidate for the doctorate. The post doctoral fellowships are for a period of two or three months and can be taken up any time during the fiscal year, beginning July 1st. February 1st was the 1970 deadline for applications. Correspondence about future arrangements should be addressed to the John Carter Brown Library, Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island 02912.

Yale Fellowships in Cuban and Haitian Research

Yale's Cuba/Haiti Research Project has established for 1969/70 and 1970/71 two research and teaching fellowships per year for scholars doing original research in the Cuban and Haitian fields. At the postdoctoral level the fellowships are from $8,000 to $10,000, and at the Senior Fellow level, from $10,000 to $12,000. Appointments may begin in the Fall or the Spring Terms and the Fellow may include the summer months in lieu of a semester. In some cases he may be asked to teach a one-term seminar on the subject of his research. The appointments are held within the department of the recipient's discipline; departmental approval of a candidate is thus necessary for the holding of a fellowship. Enquiries to: Director, Cuba/Haiti Research Project, Box 1970 Yale Station, New Haven, Conn. 06520.