

PERSPECTIVES

Perspectives on Contributors. Dr. K. W. Allen is faculty member of Northampton College of Advanced Technology (London); Dr. Sheldon S. Cohen is instructor in history at Hunter College (New York); John R. Lawry is member of the Department of Education, University of Queensland (Brisbane); Dr. Marjorie Cruickshank is researcher at The Scottish Council for Research in Education and part-time lecturer in the Jordanhill College of Education (Glasgow).

Perspective on Historiography. We call attention to a particularly provocative review of two documents bearing on issues in this professional area. Dr. Robert Mason's review significantly clarifies the issues and carries along the dialogue recently furthered by Dr. William Brickman and Timothy L. Smith.
