NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, Department of American Studies, The University, Manchester M13 9PL, England.
2. Articles should generally contain about 5000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editor.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams and maps may be included by arrangement with the Editor.
5. Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered in one sequence throughout the article, and should preferably be typed in double spacing at the end of the article.
6. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. Notes intended for the Editor or printer should be on a separate sheet.
8. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within ten days of receiving them.
9. Correction should be kept to an absolute minimum. It should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
10. Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free separates. Extra copies may be ordered according to the scale of charges.
11. Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
12. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the U.S.A.
