Concentration of Measure for the Analysis of Randomized Algorithms

Devdatt Dubhashi
and Alessandro Panconesi

“Concentration bounds are at the core of probabilistic analysis of algorithms. This excellent text provides a comprehensive treatment of this important subject, ranging from the very basic to the more advanced tools, including some recent developments in this area. The presentation is clear and includes numerous examples, demonstrating applications of the bounds in analysis of algorithms. This book is a valuable resource for both researchers and students in the field.”

The primary focus of ReCALL is the use of technologies for language learning and teaching. It aims to appeal to researchers and practitioners in the area of computer-assisted and technology-enhanced language learning, normally but not exclusively operating in universities. ReCALL is also of interest to language teachers in secondary and tertiary education who may be considering the introduction of technologies into their teaching practice.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Editorial policy The journal welcomes submissions in any of the areas of Combinatorics, Probability, or Computer Science, not just those dealing explicitly with relations between the three. Its scope covers combinatorics in a broad sense, including classical and algebraic graph theory, probabilistic methods, random structures, combinatorial probability and limit theorems for random combinatorial structures; and the theory of algorithms, including complexity theory, randomised algorithms, probabilistic analysis of algorithms, computational learning theory and optimisation.

Submission of manuscripts Authors are strongly encouraged to submit papers electronically, ideally in the form of a pdf or postscript file. Papers should be sent to the editorial office at cpc@msci.memphis.edu, or can alternatively be submitted through any member of the Editorial Board. Papers may also be submitted in hard copy: three copies should be sent accompanied by the author's address, telephone, fax number, and email address.

Submission of a paper is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature upon acceptance of their paper.

On final acceptance of a paper, authors will be asked to send LaTeX source code, along with figure files and author-defined macros, to the editorial office. The publisher reserves the right to typeset any article by conventional means if the author's LaTeX code presents problems in production.

Layout of manuscripts Papers should begin with an abstract of not more than 300 words. References should be listed in alphabetical order at the end of the main text.

Proof reading Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors. No page charge is made. The journal sends author proofs in pdf format, but requires a marked hard copy to be returned to the publisher unless corrections are very light. See instructions with the pdf proof.

Offprints No paper offprints are provided, but a pdf of the published article will be sent to the corresponding author.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
