DODD, MEAD Books in French

Under the advisory editorship of Professor JOHN KENNETH LESLIE,
Chairman, Department of Romance Languages, Northwestern University

A CONVERSATIONAL INTRODUCTION TO FRENCH

By Edward T. Heise, Associate Professor, and René F. Muller, Senior Professor, both of Department of Romance Languages, United States Naval Academy

■ The principal purpose of this beginning college text is to develop, as rapidly as possible, the student's ability to speak French. The emphasis is on formulating simple, complete ideas, principally through questions and answers.

■ The book is brief and clearly organized (34 lessons, 7 review chapters, and a chapter on French pronunciation). It can be covered in one semester of three hours a week.

■ The grammar is presented clearly and simply and without undue emphasis. It is intended as a help and not as an end in itself. There is ample drill material.

■ The reading selections cover both practical everyday situations as well as cultural material about France and its history and literature.

THE POST-SYMBOLIST PERIOD

by KENNETH CORNELL

A continuation of the author's investigation of The Symbolist Movement, in which he pursues the thread of poetic theory and practice in France from 1900 to 1920. Mr. Cornell reviews the work and reputation of such men as Apollinaire, Claudel, Péguy, Valéry, Guérin, and Moréas in terms of the critical thought of both their time and ours.
