REINTERPRETING PROPERTY

Margaret Jane Radin

"The discussion of theories of property all too easily falls into the hands of lawyers obsessed with takings or political philosophers obsessed with Locke and Hegel, and all too rarely into the hands of thinkers who can move as easily between law and philosophy as Professor Radin does here."—Alan Ryan, Princeton University

Cloth $29.95 278 pages

THE LAW OF THE OTHER

The Mixed Jury and the Changing Conceptions of Citizenship, Law, and Knowledge

Marianne Constable

Through a penetrating analysis of a nearly forgotten legal institution and doctrine, Constable brilliantly illuminates the positivistic elements in social science and law that have insinuated themselves into modern society.

"One of those all-too-rare books that can speak eloquently about our past and, at the same time, richly illuminate the origins and the contingency of the present."—Austin Sarat, Amherst College

RIGHTS AT WORK

Pay Equity Reform and the Politics of Legal Mobilization

Michael W. McCann

What role has litigation played in the struggle for equal pay between women and men? In Rights at Work, Michael W. McCann explains how wage discrimination battles have raised public legal consciousness and helped reform activists mobilize working women in the pay equity movement over the past two decades.

"Rights at Work is a major book that makes an important contribution to understanding the subtle and various ways in which law interacts with social change."—Gerald N. Rosenberg, author of The Hollow Hope: Can Courts Bring About Social Change?

THE ILLUSION OF EQUALITY

The Rhetoric and Reality of Divorce Reform

Martha Albertson Fineman

Fineman traces the detrimental effects of equality rhetoric in shaping divorce law.

"A wonderfully insightful book that focuses on the straight jacket the rhetoric of equality imposed on divorce reform efforts. . . . An important step toward reshaping the family law debate away from a focus on husband versus wife, in which women are unlikely ever to prevail, to a focus on children."

REPRODUCING RAPE

Domination through Talk in the Courtroom

Gregory M. Matoesian

Using tape recordings of actual trials, Matoesian looks at the social construction of rape trials and at how a woman's experience of violation can be transformed in the courtroom into an act of routine, consensual sex.

POOR DISCIPLINE

Parole and the Social Control of the Underclass, 1890-1990

Jonathan Simon

This powerful book reveals how modern strategies of punishment—and, by all accounts, their failure—relate to political and economic transformations in society at large. Simon uses the practice of parole in California as a window to the changing historical understanding of what a corrections system does and how it works.

THE LANGUAGE OF JUDGES

Lawrence M. Solan

In the first book to examine the linguistic analysis of law, Solan shows that judges sometimes inaccurately portray the way we use language, creating inconsistencies in their decisions and threatening the fairness of the judicial system.

QUESTIONS OF EVIDENCE

Proof, Practice, and Persuasion across the Disciplines

James Chandler, Arnold I. Davidson, and Harry Harootunian, editors

Surprisingly little attention has been directed toward the central concern of what constitutes evidence in research and scholarship. Questions of Evidence seeks to fill that gap by bringing together thirteen major essays by leading scholars and researchers in multiple fields across the sciences and humanities. Each essay (originally published in Critical Inquiry) is accompanied by a never-before-published critical response and a rejoinder by the author of the original essay.
