

Annual Survey of Commonwealth Law

(Published annually) 1969. Ready shortly.

Edited by H. W. R. Wade, Q.C., M.A., LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, Professor of English Law in the University of Oxford. Assistant Editor: Harold L. Cryer, M.V.O., B.A., Barrister-at-Law, Captain, R.N. (Ret.), formerly Chief Naval Judge-Advocate.

This important series provides a comprehensive survey of all new law throughout the British Commonwealth and the United Kingdom. Each volume contains material which the reader will not find collected together in one volume anywhere else. The series is edited in the Bodleian Law Library, Oxford, under the auspices of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law and the Faculty of Law in the University of Oxford. As the Solicitors' Journal wrote of the 1968 volume, 'the series already constitutes a quite unique library of information about Commonwealth law and will increase in value as time passes'.

East Africa Law Reports

(Issued in Parts four times a year.)

This series of Law Reports, commenced in 1957, covers cases decided in the Court of Appeal for East Africa, the superior Courts of the constituent Territories—Aden, Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania—as well as by the Privy Council on Appeal from those Courts. Every case likely to be of interest and value to lawyers is reported. Each volume runs to some 1,000 pages, but the size of Parts varies according to the amount of reportable material. Standard Binding Cases and Bound Volumes are also available, full details of which will be given by the Publishers on application. A cumulative Index and Noter-Up covering the period since 1957 is issued annually.

Guide to the Legal Profession in East Africa

by TUDOR JACKSON, LL.B. (Lond.), F.C.C.S., D.M.A., of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law, Advocate of the High Court of Kenya, Senior Lecturer in Law, Kenya School of Law, Nairobi, Kenya

The main object of this book is to present a factual account of the different methods of qualifying as a lawyer in East Africa. In achieving this the author provides invaluable practical advice on all aspects of a legal career in East Africa, beginning with the decision to study law, continuing through information on entrance to and work at the centres for law study, the qualifications, and careers generally. Reference is made to relevant syllabuses, courses, and textbooks, with particular attention being devoted to East African textbooks and legal periodicals. Information is also given about the various training courses for non-professional magistrates, the entrance requirements, and the form which the courses take.
