
NEW UNDERSTANDINGS NEW CONCEPTS

THE THEOLOGICAL IMAGINATION

Constructing the Concept of God
by Gordon D. Kaufman

In this challenging work, Kaufman asserts that the sole task of theology is the imaginative construction of the doctrine of God. He shows how we must introduce new elements, eliminate false concepts, correct misinterpretations, and constantly analyze, criticize, and reconstruct our idea of God into terms that seem appropriate and true for our own time and place.

Schleiermacher's Early Philosophy of Life: Determinism, Freedom and Phantasy

ALBERT BLACKWELL

Following the course of Schleiermacher's life from 1789–1804, this book develops its themes of determinism, freedom, and phantasy in relation to three principal writings: On Human Freedom (1792); On Religion (1799); and Soliloquies (1800). The book provides a thorough analysis of Schleiermacher's early thinking and an interpretive portrait of Schleiermacher as a young man, augmented by passages from his correspondence and incidents from his life.
