THE JUNGLE GROWS BACK

America and Our Imperiled World

ROBERT KAGAN

"In clear and forceful language, [The Jungle Grows Back] makes the case for America continuing its role as the guarantor of a liberal world order."

—Eli Lake, Bloomberg

"An insightful study of American foreign policy. . . . Kagan powerfully argues that America should keep playing its role in enforcing peace in the world."

—The Washington Book Review

THE SCHOOLHOUSE GATE

Public Education, the Supreme Court, and the Battle for the American Mind

JUSTIN DRIVER

"The Schoolhouse Gate is the first book-length history of Supreme Court cases involving the constitutional rights of schoolchildren, a set of cases that, though often written about, have never before been written about all together, as if they constituted a distinct body of law."

—Jill Lepore, The New Yorker

PANTHEON | CLOTH | 576 PAGES | $35.00

A SAVAGE ORDER

How the World's Deadliest Countries Can Forge a Path to Security

RACHEL KLEINFELD

"A Savage Order gives us a comprehensive survey of countries that have overcome extreme violence and shows how there is a common thread to their recoveries, one that could be of tremendous help to countries currently in the grip of deadly violence. Rachel Kleinfeld's analysis . . . will be required reading for those players and policymakers who are actually trying to deal with such terrible problems today." —Francis Fukuyama

PANTHEON | CLOTH | 496 PAGES | $28.95

AMERICAN DIALOGUE

The Founders and Us

JOSEPH J. ELLIS

"Joe Ellis knows that history is not simply about the past, it's about the present having a conversation with the past. In this elegant and fascinating book, he conducts a discourse between our current troubled times and the period when our founders crafted our national creed. The result is an exploration of our values that is both timely and timeless."

—Walter Isaacson, author of Leonardo Da Vinci

KNOFF | CLOTH | 304 PAGES | $27.95

RUTH BADER GINSBURG

A Life

JANE SHERRON DE HART

"Laudatory. . . . De Hart's great strength is her ability to explain Ginsburg's cases and the legal strategies she employed . . . an insightful, fascinating, and admiring biography of one of America's most extraordinary jurists." —Publishers Weekly

"Ginsburg's career is skillfully placed within the context of American social and political history . . . a sophisticated analysis of the justice's thinking on constitutional change, reproductive rights, gender equality, and affirmative action."

—Marie M. Mullaney, Library Journal

KNOFF | CLOTH | 752 PAGES | $35.00

RISING OUT OF HATRED

The Awakening of a Former White Nationalist

ELI SASLOW

"Rising Out of Hatred is a disturbing look at the spread of that extremism—and how it is planted and cultivated in the fertile soil of American bigotry. And yet, Saslow's vivid storytelling also conveys that during this period of deepening racial division, there is the possibility of redemption."

—The Washington Post

DOUBLEDAY | CLOTH | 304 PAGES | $26.95

"I think it is, without doubt, the most important, most illuminating book written on the 2016 election. And in doing that I think it's one of the most important books for understanding American politics today."
—Ezra Klein, Vox

Cloth $29.95

"You may think you understand the internet, but chances are you don't. It's not what you thought, nor what you hoped. Read this book. Then make your friends read it, too."
—Michael J. Copps, former commissioner of the Federal Communications Commission

Cloth $29.95

"The distinctive politics of the South has long been a specter haunting American politics. No one has brought more clarity or analytical acuity to the study of Southern politics and its central role in the long history of American democracy than Devin Caughey."
—Robert C. Lieberman, Johns Hopkins University

Paper $35.00 | Cloth $99.00

"A fascinating account of the relationship between the academy and the Washington policy community over the past century."
—James Goldgeier, American University

Cloth $35.00

"This beautifully written and tremendously important book charts new territory and moves political theory in essential and innovative new directions."
—Jeanne Morefield, Whitman College

Cloth $35.00

"Reading Machiavelli offers a rare example of what intellectual history and political theory can be when practiced at the highest level."
—Gabriele Pedullà, author of Machiavelli in Tumult

Cloth $29.95

Navigating Political Science

Navigating the political science discipline can be a daunting task for those unfamiliar with its nuances. APSA's newest resource offers advice on both handling the challenges presented by the discipline and taking full advantage of its opportunities.

Navigating Political Science: Professional Advancement & Success in the Discipline, edited by Kent Worcester, brings together some of the most noteworthy, discipline-focused contributions to APSA journals published over the past couple of decades. With 28 chapters by 45 contributors, the book touches on topics that range from peer review, mentoring, and faculty governance, to blogging, data collection, and digital media in the classroom. The book should prove relevant for political scientists across the board, from aspiring ABDs to seasoned PhDs.

Find a Mentor or Become a Mentor

The APSA Mentoring Program is an opportunity for all political scientists to network and share experience, advice and insights about career planning, scholarship, and a variety of professional issues such as:

- Selecting a dissertation committee
- Publishing and research
- Non-academic careers
- Life as junior faculty member
- Balancing family and work

APSA seeks mentors that provide professional advice to undergraduates, graduate students, and junior faculty in the profession, specifically in non-academic careers and international relations, and to mentor Ralph Bunche Scholars (RBSI) and/or APSA Minority Fellows (MFP).

Matching Process

APSA accepts mentor requests for short-term (one semester) and long-term (one academic year) mentoring. However, matched mentors and mentees are encouraged to continue the relationship beyond the official APSA mentoring period if they find it mutually beneficial.

The APSA staff makes mentor matches twice a year: once at the beginning of the fall semester (for short term and long term matches) and once at the beginning of the spring semester (for short term matches). Matches are made first-come, first-served based on suitability of the match profile and mentor availability.

Apply today! Submit an online application to become or request a mentor at www.apsanet.org/mentor.

Style Manual for Political Science

Revised 2018 Edition

The APSA Style Manual remains the standard in the discipline upon which students, junior faculty members, and well established scholars authoring manuscripts, as well as editors, copyeditors, and proofreaders, can rely. The manual now includes style requirements for all four APSA membership-wide journals, as well as organized section journals. Be sure to visit the companion website for guideline updates as they arise.
