Colección Documental de la Independencia del Perú

In 1969 the government of Perú established a Comisión Nacional del Sesquicentenario de la Independencia del Perú to edit and publish a collection of the most important documents, from ideological, political, military, economic, journalistic, and literary points of view, relating to the participation of Perú and of Peruvians in the emancipation of Perú and of the American continent.

The Collection consists of eight series of 10 volumes each with a publication run of 3000 copies. The research team was composed of the following scholars: Ella Dunbar Temple, Felipe de la Barra, Félix Denegri Luna, Guillermo Durand Flórez, Julio J. Elías M., Guillermo Lohmann Villena, Aurelio Miró Quesada Sosa, Armando Nieto Vélez, Estuardo Núñez Hague, Gustavo Pons Muzzo, José Agustín de la Puente Candamo, and Alberto Tauro del Pino. The cost per series is S/1 2,000.00 (plus postage) with a 20% cash discount. Send correspondence to: Comisión Nacional del Sesquicentenario de la Independencia del Perú, Av. Arequipa 410, Lima, Perú.

Handbook

The University of Florida has recently published the Handbook of Latin American Studies, no. 34 (Humanities), edited by Donald E. J. Stewart. This volume is a selective, annotated guide to recent publications in art, folklore, history, language, literature, music, and philosophy. It was prepared with the assistance of some 84 contributing editors and a small core of foreign corresponding editors who provided the descriptive and evaluative comments.

Historiografía Argentina 1930–1970

Librería Piloto offers a bibliography of 5100 listings of works published between 1930 and 1970, with biannual updatings. Historiografía Argentina 1930–1970 is published in two volumes, 674 pages, printed on one side. Material listed was written by Argentine authors exclusively in the form of monographs, booklets, or special publications and includes interpretative essays, narrative history, and methodology.

The cost of the work is $100.00. A special time payment plan ($40.–$30.–$30.) is available for students and professors only. Send inquiries to: Librería Piloto, Casilla de Correo 234, Sucursal 12, Buenos Aires, Argentina.
