CHANGES OF ADDRESS, AFFILIATION, AND RANK

The MLA Treasurer's office urgently requests the cooperation of members so that it may cut down the number of misdirected copies of PMLA and may make the annual September directory a more accurate listing of the membership. At present, we receive a distressingly large number of communications in the late fall reporting new affiliations and addresses as of September. The results are that several hundred copies of the September issue are not delivered (and neither forwarded nor returned to us) and have to be replaced at considerable cost to the Association when we have finally received current addresses. Unless we have information about new affiliations and addresses by June 1, we cannot record them in the September directory or include the new addresses in the mailing list for the September issue.

We furthermore ask that members give ALL necessary information when writing to us about any change. If a member previously at the University of Texas sends a U. S. Post Office form giving a new address in Hanover, New Hampshire, we may guess that he has accepted an appointment at Dartmouth, but we cannot be certain and, in any case, do not know what academic position should be included in his directory listing. Each such case—and there are many—requires that we send a card asking for the additional information. Members reporting a change of name because of marriage should indicate whether the directory should list only married name, or maiden name plus married name in parentheses.

From now on, the form on the back of this announcement will appear in almost every issue of PMLA. If members will use it to inform us of changes, we will be able to serve with more efficiency and dispatch.

SCHEDULE OF DUES

Section I, 1, of the Bylaws, as amended by the action of the membership at the business meeting at New York, New York, December 27, 1964, reads:

"The annual dues shall be fifteen dollars except for the following special categories of membership:

- a. Student membership at seven dollars, open for a maximum of four years to those who are engaged primarily in a course of study leading to a degree and who do not hold full-time teaching appointments.
- b. Joint husband-and-wife membership at twenty-two dollars with only one subscription to PMLA.
- c. Foreign membership at ten dollars, open to resident citizens of countries other than the United States and Canada.

With the exception stipulated in sub-section b, members in these three special categories shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership."

Please check the classification under which you come and return this form with the proper remittance.

- 1. Regular membership$15.00
- 2. Student membership (see below) 7.00
- 3. Husband-and-wife membership (see below) 22.00
- 4. Foreign membership (see below) 10.00

Anyone enrolling as a student member is asked to obtain the signature of the chairman of the department in which he is enrolled, attesting to his status.

Seventeenth-Century American Poetry

Edited by Harrison T. Meserole

This is the first full-length edition devoted entirely to poetry written in America before 1725—beginning with Thomas Tillan's lyric lines upon sighting the New World in 1638. Included are the major writers Anne Bradstreet, Michael Wigglesworth, and Edward Taylor, fifteen minor writers, among them Edward Johnson, Roger Williams, and Cotton Mather, 34 other representative writers, and a selection of anonymous verse. As the editor says in his Introduction, "Students of early America have been largely unaware of the considerable body of verse written by the men and women of our first century. . . . To be sure, some poems of the period have been included in anthologies of American literature, but too often these selections have done little to represent the range of what was written in the era, and consequently have given an imperfect view of the poetic achievement during the first century of this country's history." Now Mr. Meserole affords us the opportunity to assess that achievement. About 500 pages. $8.00.
