Global Constitutionalism

■ Human Rights ■ Democracy ■ Rule of Law

Global Constitutionalism – Human Rights, Democracy and the Rule of Law (GlobCon) seeks to promote a deeper understanding on the foundations, limitations and principles of political order and their dynamics over time on a global scale.

The journal is interested in work that refers to constitutionalism as a template for empirical, conceptual or normative research on past, present and future political and legal practices, within and beyond the state.

GlobCon invites submissions from scholars of International Law, Political Science, International Relations, Comparative Constitutional Law, Comparative Politics, Political Theory and Philosophy.

Published in Association with the Centre for Globalisation and Governance,
University of Hamburg

TEL

TRANSNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

TEL is dedicated to the development of new ideas on law's contribution to environmental governance in a global context. It approaches legal and regulatory developments with an interest in the contribution of nonstate actors and an awareness of the multi-level governance context in which contemporary environmental law unfolds.

TEL warmly invites new work on topics within the scope of the journal from scholars, lawyers and professionals active in fields related to environmental law and governance.
