Political Science Research and Methods

THE JOURNAL OF THE EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION

Political Science Research and Methods (PSRM) is a general political science journal dedicated to publishing original scholarly work of the highest quality from all subfields of political science.

PSRM seeks research that applies rigorous methods to empirical or theoretical problems and promotes a rigorous scientific approach to the study of politics. Work at the intersection of political science and related disciplines such as economics and sociology is also welcomed.

EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE REVIEW

"In one short year, the EPSR has established itself as one of the best outlets for innovative political research anywhere – not just in Europe, and not just about Europe. Its mixture of thoughtful essays and original research reports makes it a pleasure to read and learn from."

SIDNEY TARROW, CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Are you up to date with the original, wide-ranging and broad-minded articles published by EPSR?

If your library doesn't already have a subscription, you should encourage your librarian to subscribe so you, your colleagues and your students will all have access to this indispensable and stimulating source of new scholarship in all areas of political science.

Japanese Journal of Political Science

Executive Editor

Takashi Inoguchi, University of Niigata Prefecture, Japan

The Japanese Journal of Political Science is a broadly based journal aiming to cover developments across a wide range of countries and specialisms. Its scope is wide-ranging both in terms of subject matter and method. The journal features articles in all fields of political science, especially where these have a conceptual thrust including political theory, comparative politics, political behaviour, political institutions, public policy, and international relations. At the same time, the journal seeks to attract the best comparative articles featuring both the domestic and international politics of Japan and East Asia. Each issue contains full length research articles, review articles and book reviews.
