Editorial Policy: Social Policy and Society is an international academic journal sponsored by the UK Social Policy Association. The journal welcomes stimulating original articles that draw upon contemporary policy-related research and associated developments in the social sciences. Each issue contains peer reviewed articles reflecting topical debates and issues within social policy and uniquely, a themed section, edited by a Guest Editor(s). Every themed section includes an introductory piece, a set of peer reviewed articles, a selected review of the key literature, plus a guide to key sources in the area.

All articles need to be of a high academic quality and should also be accessible to a wide readership which includes policymakers, academic staff and students within and beyond the United Kingdom.

Social Policy and Society uses double-blind peer review to inform the editors' decisions on submissions. All manuscripts are sent to reviewers chosen on the basis of subject or methodological expertise. Decisions are made by the editors on the basis of reviews from at least two reviewers. Typically submissions are reviewed within three months, although in some instances the process can take longer.
