TENSE, REFERENCE, AND WORLDMAKING

James A. McGilvray

The tenses of natural languages are intimately connected with the abilities we have to relate real or fictional stories that take place outside our immediate temporal or spacial context. While philosophers and cognitive scientists have had difficulty coming to terms with these abilities, James McGilvray maintains that they must be understood before an adequate view of what a tense is can be constructed.

Using Reichenbach's (1947) theory of tenses and temporal structures as a point of departure, McGilvray modifies it to produce a theory of his own. Analysing the difficulties Reichenbach's theory has in explaining the relationship of a speaker to a world, he introduces a new model for this relationship based on the three-interval temporal topology that Reichenbachian theory assigns to the sentences of natural languages.

THE RECOVERY OF THE SOUL

An Aristotelian Essay on Self-fulfilment

Kenneth Rankin

The Recovery of the Soul is an essay in first philosophy. Through a critical analysis of Aristotelian principles, Kenneth Rankin examines some of the central problems of psychology, value theory, and ontology, and proposes a psychocentric form of physicalism.

Many of our ontological preconceptions, Rankin asserts, are Aristotelian in origin. He begins his study by outlining Aristotle's contributions to a theory of being, revealing their essentially psychocentric nature, and suggesting which parts of our Aristotelian preconceptions should be kept and which revised.

PHILOSOPHY NOW

At last a magazine for people interested in Western philosophy. Lively, readable and irreverent, it contains articles on all aspects of the subject. Our aim is that Philosophy Now should be to philosophy what Scientific American is to the physical sciences - rigorous and of interest to the specialist but approachable for the layman as well.

Issue 2 is out now, and is available at £1.90 from selected newsagents and bookshops, or by subscription from the publishers. Why not let us rush you a copy today?

Please send me :

* Issue 2 of Philosophy Now. I enclose a cheque for £1.90 inc. post and packing.

* Issues 2 to 7 inclusive. I enclose a cheque for £10.50 inc. post and packing.

The Political Responsibility of Intellectuals

Edited by IAN MACLEAN, ALAN MONTEFIORE and PETER WINCH

This book addresses the many problems in defining the relationship of intellectuals to the society in which they live. The volume is given a particular interest by recent political upheavals in Eastern Europe, where many intellectuals have been confronted with sharply practical choices about their role in the political arena.

The British Journal of Aesthetics

Editor: T.J. Diffey, University of Sussex

The British Journal of Aesthetics is one of the leading journals for philosophical discussion on the international scene. Its main purpose is to provide a medium for study of the philosophy of art and the principles of aesthetic judgement, in the context of all the arts. In addition to general aesthetics, experience of both fine and applied art is examined from the point of view of the psychologist, and the general critic.

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Mr Renford Bambrough, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. Articles submitted should conform to Hart's Rules for Compositors and Readers (Oxford University Press, 1967). The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. to be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Mr Bambrough as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Mr Bambrough at St John's College, Cambridge. All other correspondence should be addressed to the Institute and not to any address in Cambridge.
