CATHOLIC EVANGELICALISM

DIETER VOLL

Foreword by Bishop Stephen Neill

A fascinating study of the acceptance of Evangelical traditions by the later generations of the Oxford Movement during the second half of the nineteenth century. Written by a brilliant young Lutheran scholar, it is a valuable contribution to ecumenical study. Bishop Neill writes: "Dr. Voll has directed his careful researches to an aspect of English religion which is now almost wholly forgotten". 15s.

ISRAEL MY CHOSEN PEOPLE

B. SCHLINK

Foreword by Paul Oestreicher

An exposition of the unique destiny of the Jewish people, addressed primarily to the German nation and then to the Christian conscience at large. The author is one of the two founders of the striking Lutheran Ecumenical Sisterhood of Mary, Darmstadt. Paul Oestreicher writes: "In the forefront of the Sisters' life is their identification with the Jewish people whose cruel martyrdom is deeply engraved in their minds and on their pronounced corporate personality". 6s.

THE PRIMACY OF PETER

Essays by four prominent Orthodox theologians - Meyendorff, Afanassieff, Koulomzine and Schmemmann - on the attitude of the Eastern Church to St. Peter and his succession and to the idea of primacy. These are questions very relevant to the present situation, when the Vatican Council is at work. 15s.
