SINGING THE Lord's Song IN A STRANGE LAND

An informed portrait of the historic black church in the United States

WILLIAM D. WATLEY
The African American Churches and Ecumenism

Although the historic black church in the United States has been and continues to be the central force in black life—and although the total U. S. membership of the black church in its various forms numbers about 22 million—it is little known and often misunderstood.

The purpose of this work, which author William Watley characterizes as a “primer,” is to introduce African-American religion and its primary institutional embodiments, the historic African-American churches, to those who want to know more about them.

This informed portrait focuses on the seven so-called historic black churches — three Methodist, three Baptist, and one Pentecostal — depicting their worship life, international mission, theological enterprise, and ecumenical relationships. Including a sizable bibliography, the book aptly manifests to the wider ecumenical family what is unique about black spirituality and the historic black church.

PRIZES OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CHURCH HISTORY

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The Brewer Prize is limited to first books. Manuscripts already accepted for publication may be submitted for this award, but the publication must have printed on its title-page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." The monetary grant will be authorized upon receipt in writing of a commitment from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 November. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The award will be announced at the Spring meeting of the Society. No award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding.

Winner for 1993: Diana Hochstedt Butler, "Standing Against the Whirlwind: A Study of the Evangelical Party in the Protestant Episcopal Church."

Winner for 1992: Gregory Hanlon, "Confession and Community in Seventeenth-Century France: Catholics and Protestants in Acquitaine."

Winner for 1991: Amy Nelson Burnett, "The Yoke of Christ: Penance and Church Discipline in the Thought of Martin Bucer."

The Philip Schaff Prize

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1000 to be paid to the author of the best book originating in the North American scholarly community which presents original research in the history of Christianity or any period thereof. This award is given in odd-numbered years. Books published during the two previous calendar years are eligible for the competition. Any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Copies of nominated books need not be submitted. Titles of nominated books must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701 by 1 March in odd-numbered years. The prize will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1991: David D. Hall, Worlds of Wonder, Days of Judgment: Popular Religious Belief in Early New England.

Winner for 1989: Carolyn Bynum, Holy Feast and Holy Fast: The Religious Significance of Food to Medieval Women.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize

The Sidney E. Mead Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent recipient whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 July. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1992: Alison Williams Lewin, "'Cum Status Ecclesie Noster Sit . . .': Florence and the Council of Pisa (1409)."

Winner for 1991: Ernest Freeburg, "'An Object of Peculiar Interest': The Education of Laura Bridgman."

THE ALBERT C. OUTLER PRIZE IN ECUMENICAL CHURCH HISTORY

The Albert C. Outler Prize in Ecumenical Church History consists of an award of $1000 to the author of a book-length manuscript and a possible grant of up to $3000 for publication costs—or in exceptional cases, for necessary expenses in the preparation of a manuscript accepted for publication. The term “Ecumenical” is to be construed as chiefly concerned with the problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) in any period of church history, or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements. Works of a partisan nature are excluded. The winning manuscript must have printed on its title-page, “The Albert C. Outler Prize in Ecumenical History of the American Society of Church History.” Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 June. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1991: Ronald L. Numbers, The Creationists.

Winner for 1989: Jon Butler, Awash in a Sea of Faith: Christianizing the American People.

THE JANE DEMPSEY DOUGLASS PRIZE

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay on some aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including doubled-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 August each year. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1991: Joyce Irwin, “Pietism and Women: A Study in Contrasts.”
