The Classical Association

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £5. 5s.). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association. They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review 30s., Quarterly 25s.; combined subscription £2. 13s.), though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 20s.

Copies of the final issue of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (covering the years 1945-7) and of the volume for 1939-45 can still be obtained for 6s. each from Professor L. J. D. Richardson, University College, Cardiff, who can also supply many of the pre-war back numbers at 2s. 6d. per volume, post free.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. J. S. Shields, Queen Mary's School, Basingstoke, Hants. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Hon. Secretaries of the Association (Professor L. J. D. Richardson, University College, Cardiff, and Mr. T. W. Melliush, Bec School, London, S.W. 17) or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the District Branches—viz. Aberystwyth, Bedfordshire, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Cardiff, East Anglia, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicester, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Northamptonshire, North Staffordshire, Northumberland and Durham, North Wales (Bangor), Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Shrewsbury, Southampton, South-Western (Exeter), Sussex, Swansea, Tees-side, Worcester and Malvern.

UNIVERSITY OF CAPE TOWN

SOUTH AFRICA

Applications are invited for two posts of LECTURER IN CLASSICS which will fall vacant in July 1956.

The salary scale is £850×£50—£1150 per annum plus a temporary cost-of-living allowance (at present £234 per annum for a married man).

Applications (with copies of testimonials) should state age, qualifications, and experience and give the names of two referees whom the University may consult. Two copies of the application should reach the Secretary, Association of Universities of the British Commonwealth, 36 Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1 (from whom further information and a general memorandum giving the conditions of appointment should be obtained) not later than 31st March 1956. An additional copy should be sent direct by air mail to the Registrar, University of Cape Town, Private Bag, Rondebosch, Cape Town, South Africa, by the same date.

The University reserves the right to appoint a person other than one of the applicants or to make no appointment.

THE GREEK TYRANTS

Professor A. Andrewes

This book is concerned primarily with an early period of Greek history, when the aristocracies which ruled in the eighth and seventh centuries were losing control of their cities and were very often overthrown by a tyranny, which in its turn gave way to the oligarchies and democracies of the classical period. The author discusses here the various military, economic, political, and social factors of the situation which produced these early tyrants.

A GREEK GRAMMAR AND EXERCISES

By

PROF. S. DAVIS

M.A. (Cantab.), D.Litt. (Witwatersrand)

*Head of Department of Classics
University of Natal*

This book has been written after many years' experience both as student and lecturer. Its aim is to provide both grammar and exercises. In the brief time allotted to the teaching of Greek it has been found that the essentials of Greek grammar and syntax must be learnt—there is no short cut. Nevertheless, the material necessary for a foundation in the language can be presented clearly and lucidly. As will be seen from the arrangement of the sections of this book, two terms are postulated for a first-year university course. Schools, however, may sub-divide the subject-matter so as to cover four or more terms. They will find the matter and the arrangement in this book eminently suitable for their purpose.
