

ERRATA

Due to the authors' oversight, the article by Noam Lupu and Susan Stokes, "The Social Bases of Political Parties in Argentina, 1912–2003," printed in LARR 44, no. 1 (2009), contained a citation error. The end of the paragraph at the top of page 60 should have read: ". . . were protesting against the influx of immigrants and against their own exploitation at the hands of large landowners (Persello 2004; Rock 1975; c.f. Alonso 2006). Their principal competitors, various conservative parties, represented provincial landholders."
