

Campus Teaching Awards, Academic Year 2011–12

A

PSA is pleased to recognize the recipients of campus-wide and departmental awards for teaching excellence during the 2011–12 academic year. Usually, Pi Sigma Alpha hosts these recipients each year at the Reception Honoring Teaching at the APSA Annual Meeting; however, due to cancellation of the event, PS is pleased to note the awardees here.

American Political Science Association

The APSA Distinguished Teaching Award

For more than 100 years, APSA has recognized excellence across the discipline. Its awards for scholarship and service are among the most distinguished in the discipline. Now the association has a formal means to recognize excellence in political science education.

We are proud to announce the establishment of the first ever APSA Distinguished Teaching Award.

The award will honor the outstanding contributions of an individual to undergraduate and/or graduate teaching of political science at an institution of higher learning. It will credit accomplishments aimed at enhancing teaching in the profession and it will recognize contributions spanning years or an entire career.

Call for Nominations:

The deadline for nominations is January 13, 2013. The award will be given during the 2013 Annual Meeting in Chicago, IL. Nominations from departments, chairs, colleagues, and self-nominations are welcome.

"By helping my students understand that group differences still matter in America, I am preparing them to live in our increasingly diverse society and forge solutions that will draw us closer together."
