

CALL FOR PAPERS

Special Issue

The History of Women and Education

Editorial Board for this Issue:

Joan Burstyn, Lynn Gordon, Linda Perkins, Sally Schwager

In 1993 the History of Education Quarterly will publish a special issue on the history of women and education. We seek manuscripts addressing all aspects of this topic. We are particularly interested in work with a comparative perspective (e.g., American and European), with a focus on minority women and/or women of color, focusing on teachers, dealing with women and educational leadership, and looking at women and education outside of such traditional settings as schools and colleges. Please submit manuscripts by December 1992 to the Editor, History of Education Quarterly, School of Education, Room 203, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405.

Please note: Manuscripts should be prepared according to Style A of The Chicago Manual of Style (13th ed.), double spaced, limited to twenty-five pages exclusive of notes, and submitted in duplicate. Notes should be double spaced and placed at the end of the article.

The Politics of Progressive Education

The Odenwaldschule in Nazi Germany

DENNIS SHIRLEY

This book offers a richly rewarding examination of how education in general, and progressive education in particular, fared in the turbulent political currents of Nazi Germany. It brings to light a remarkable story, hitherto untold, of education reformer Paul Geheeb's successful attempt to uphold humanistic values in the darkest of circumstances.

"A very interesting book of high originality.

Located in the interface between history of education, political science, educational theory, and comparative education, it is a fascinating account of the confrontations, compromises, and final breakdown of educational liberalism under the attack from both an authoritarian ideology and the build up of totalitarian state power." —Wolfgang Edelstein,
