Aims and Scope

The British Journal of Nutrition is an international, peer-reviewed journal publishing original papers, review articles, short communications and technical notes on human and clinical nutrition, general nutrition, and animal nutrition. Correspondence is encouraged in a nutrition discussion forum. The Journal recognizes the multidisciplinary nature of nutritional science and encourages the submission of material from all of the specialities involved in research and clinical practice. The Journal also publishes supplements on topics of particular interest.

The British Journal of Nutrition is published monthly by CAB INTERNATIONAL on behalf of The Nutrition Society.

The Nutrition Society has as its objective the advancement of the scientific study of nutrition and its application to the maintenance of human and animal health.

Application for membership is invited from anyone whose work has contributed to the scientific knowledge of nutrition, whether such work has been in the laboratory, the field or the clinic, and whether experimental, clinical, agricultural or statistical in nature. There is also a student membership scheme with reduced subscriptions.

Particulars of The Nutrition Society and application forms for membership are available from the Honorary Secretary, The Nutrition Society, 10 Cambridge Court, 210 Shepherds Bush Road, London, W6 7NJ, UK.

Editorial Policy for the British Journal of Nutrition Supplements

Supplements to the British Journal of Nutrition publish material which falls within the general remit of the Journal, namely the advancement of nutritional science in its broadest sense. Material to be published in Supplements will be subject to peer review, normally by one or more Supplement Editors appointed by the Editorial Board for each supplementary issue. The British Journal of Nutrition Editorial Board reserves the right not to accept for publication any material which in the opinion of the Supplement Editor(s) is of insufficient quality or scientific balance. Individual supplements may be sponsored by one or more bodies but sponsorship must not, in the judgement of the Supplement Editor(s), affect the scientific balance of the material presented.

Suggestions of material which may be suitable for publication as a supplement to The British Journal of Nutrition are welcomed; they should be directed to the Chairman of the Editorial Board at the address given below:
