

Cambridge Studies in Law and Society

Founded in 1997, Cambridge Studies in Law and Society is a hub for leading scholarship in socio-legal studies. Located at the intersection of law, the humanities, and the social sciences, it publishes empirically innovative and theoretically sophisticated work on law's manifestations in everyday life: from discourses to practices, and from institutions to cultures. The series editors have longstanding expertise in the interdisciplinary study of law, and welcome contributions that place legal phenomena in national, comparative, or international perspective.

Series Editors:

Mark Fathi Massoud (UC Santa Cruz), Jens Meierhenrich (LSE), and Rachel E. Stern (UC Berkeley)
