THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association publishes three journals, Classical Quarterly, Classical Review and Greece & Rome. Members may subscribe at substantially reduced cost. Non-members and institutions can subscribe via Cambridge University Press (email journals@cambridge.org).

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, Park House, 15–23 Greenhill Crescent, Watford WD18 8PH (e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am most grateful to John Taylor and the Editorial Board of Greece & Rome for inviting me to write this little book, and for their helpful comments, together with those of the anonymous referees, and of Lyndsay Coo, Richard Rutherford, and Florence Yoon, ahead of its publication. It is also a pleasure to acknowledge the kindness of the Leverhulme Trust, whose award of a Philip Leverhulme Prize in 2012 provided me with some relief from teaching during the spring of 2017, freeing up time to begin this project; and to thank the Egypt Exploration Society for permission to print an image of POxy. 5292 on the cover.

After recently leaving the University of Nottingham after eleven happy years, I am honoured to dedicate this volume to the man who established that university as a centre for the study of ancient drama, who has done so much to shape modern scholarship on Sophocles and tragedy more generally, and who throughout my time in the School of Humanities there was the best of colleagues.
