

Figures, Maps, and Tables

Figures

0.1 Strolling along the alleyways of Matsu	page 2
1.1 Pirate house	39
1.2 Ox Horn surrounds the inlet and spreads uphill	43
1.3 Ancestral tablets and photos in a house	47
2.1 Matsu Warzone Administration Organization	53
2.2 A carved slogan erected beside a Matsu transportation hub: “One Island, One Life”	57
2.3 The buildings and sites related to the crime	59
2.4 Military bases and checkpoints around Nangan, Matsu	61
3.1 Picture of a shrimping net (with stakes, buoy, and net)	73
3.2 Women at a market selling shellfish they have gathered	83
4.1 The main building of the Supply Cooperative	97
4.2 The spatial layout of the Supply Cooperative	97
4.3 “Betting on Basketball”	99
4.4 A sketch of fishing boats trying to net yellow croaker	104
5.1 A brand new issue of Matsu Report being distributed to passengers waiting at Fu’ao Wharf for a ship to Taiwan	116
5.2 The main page of Matsu Online	118
5.3 All levels of government sections in Matsu have their own accounts on Matsu Online	121
5.4 A netizen challenges the Tianhou Temple election	128
5.5 A seller provides a phone number in an ad on Matsu Online	130
5.6 Matsu people at the 823 March with the building of KMT Central Party Department in the background	134

6.1	The Cover of The Wartime Childhood of Leimengdi	141
6.2	Xia Shuhua-Leimengdi stories on Matsu Online	142
6.3	“Return our land” cartoon	144
6.4	Qiaozhi, Beigan (circa 1960)	145
6.5	Leimengdi’s siblings	146
6.6	Processing shrimp required the participation of the whole family	147
6.7	Chairs needed for a wedding banquet	148
6.8	A children’s party	148
6.9	Lantern Festival night in Matsu	149
6.10	Deity Yang taming demons on the sea	149
6.11	Leimengdi’s personal world	150
6.12	Newly arrived soldiers	151
6.13	Dad has disappeared	152
6.14	Hiding from soldiers while gathering wild vegetables by the seaside	153
6.15	Where are these yellow croakers from?	154
6.16	Going to Tangqi at night	155
6.17	Landmines everywhere	156
6.18	Leimengdi standing by barbed wire staring out hopelessly	157
6.19	Leimengdi’s memory of his mother	159
6.20	The slow life	165
8.1	The spatial design of Ox Horn community development	186
8.2	The neighborhoods in Ox Horn	189
8.3	The seven sanctuaries in the Ox Horn temple	194
8.4	Temple in palace-style (left) and eastern Fujian-style with “Fire-barrier Gable” (right)	195
8.5	Coloring the draft of the temple	196
8.6	The old and new Ox Horn temples	198
9.1	The auditorium for the welcoming ceremony in Ningde	213
9.2	The giant statue of Goddess Mazu on a boat	220
9.3	Li Xiaoshi carrying a figurine of Goddess Mazu	222
9.4	Goddess Mazu heading for the peak of Mount Everest	223
10.1	The old Taiwan-Matsu ferry (left) vs. the fashionable New Trimaran (right)	234
10.2	Targeted land for building a casino resort in Beigan	243

List of Figures, Maps, and Tables	xi
10.3 An exotic Asian Mediterranean planned by Weidner's firm	244
10.4 Weidner in the Philippines introducing plans for a casino in Matsu	247
C.1 Yang Suisheng's handcrafted "Trimaran"	260
C.2 Cao Yixong at the renovated military base	262
C.3 Youth Association members together cleaning up the abandoned Zhuluo Elementary School	264

Maps

0.1 Matsu's position between Fujian and Taiwan	18
0.2 Nangan Island	21
1.1 The lighthouses in Matsu and the sea routes around them	36
3.1 Bade in Taoyuan County	78
9.1 The route of the Ox Horn pilgrimage	207
9.2 Four direct-sailing pilgrimages and an exploratory journey to Mount Everest	224

Tables

4.1 Daily schedule of the Supply Cooperative	98
--	----