Governance in a Global Economy

Political Authority in Transition

Edited by

Miles Kahler and David A. Lake

This book collects the contributions of seventeen leading scholars who have systematically investigated how global economic integration produces changes of governance. These authors conclude that globalization has created a new fabric of governance, but one that fails to match the stark portrait often painted by critics.

Food Fights over Free Trade

How International Institutions Promote Agricultural Trade Liberalization

Christina Davis examines the past thirty years of U.S. agricultural trade negotiations with Japan and Europe based on statistical analysis of an original dataset, case studies, and in-depth interviews with over one hundred negotiators and politicians.

Her book represents a major contribution to understanding the negotiation process, agricultural politics, and the impact of international institutions on domestic politics.
