CURRICULUM INQUIRY

A Journal from The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto

Editor-in-Chief: Dennis Thiessen

Editors: Elizabeth Campbell and Heather Sykes

CURRICULUM INQUIRY is dedicated to the study of educational research, development, evaluation, and theory. This leading international journal brings together influential academics and researchers from a variety of disciplines around the world to provide expert commentary and lively debate. Articles explore important ideas, issues, trends, and problems in education, and each issue also includes provocative and critically analytical editorials covering topics such as curriculum development, educational policy, and teacher education.

THE HISTORIAN

Editor: DAVID R. CARR

Founded in 1938, THE HISTORIAN has one of the largest circulations of any scholarly journal in the US or Britain with over 13,000 paid subscribers, both individual and institutional. THE HISTORIAN seeks to publish only the finest of contemporary and relevant historical scholarship. It is the commitment of THE HISTORIAN to serve as an integrator for the historical profession, bringing together the many strands of historical analysis through the publication of a diverse collection of articles. THE HISTORIAN is also committed to promoting a comprehensive understanding of current historiographical debates and the most recent scholarship on contemporary historical concerns. In addition to its renown for the publication of original articles, THE HISTORIAN is also noted for its extensive book review section. Running at an average of 100 pages per issue, and reflecting the general scope of the journal, this section covers a broad array of recently published scholarly monographs affording the reader an up to date survey of all fields of historical study. As part of its commitment to diversity and scholarship, THE HISTORIAN encourages submissions from all levels of the historical profession and from all regional, temporal and thematic fields of history.
