Instructions for Contributors

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts from scholars, including postgraduate students, on all aspects of contemporary Greater China. Our interdisciplinary approach covers a range of subjects including the social sciences, law, history, media, literature and the arts. Using a triple-anonymous peer review process, we publish high-quality, empirically rich and theoretically grounded research.

The China Quarterly will consider two main types of submissions: research articles (up to 9,000 words, including footnotes): in-depth and theoretical pieces which should present original research in combination with analytical argument; research reports (up to 4,000 words, including footnotes): shorter pieces based on primary research and empirical evidence. We will not consider manuscripts that are under consideration elsewhere, or that have been published in any form in any language.

Article manuscripts should be submitted through the ScholarOne online submission and peer review system (<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cqy>). If you experience technical difficulties, please contact the Editorial Office at chinaq@soas.ac.uk. An abstract of 100–150 words, some keywords and a bibliography should also be provided. All submissions should conform to the styling of The China Quarterly.

Style

Romanization and Chinese characters

Use pinyin without tone/diacritical marks, except for Chiang Kai-shek, Sun Yat-sen, Taipei, Kuomintang, and names of people living outside mainland China. Give Chinese characters on the first occurrence of each Romanization.

Chinese characters are incorporated into article texts (ie. English (pinyin, characters)) so authors must provide Chinese characters for all Chinese used in the main text (not footnotes) on first appearance, including pinyin phrases, people's names and geographical locations.

Numbers

One to ten spelled out, 11 or more in figures; per cent in text, but % in footnotes. Dates: 2 March 1993. Page references: 324–26 but 324–336.

References in footnotes

Books, chapters and articles should be shortened to the author-date-page format as follows:

Smith 2010, 15.

Smith and Wang 2011, 55–57.

Bibliography

All bibliographical references should be included at the end of the article in alphabetical order. Examples:
