Contributions to Indian Sociology

EDITOR: T.N. Madan

Founded in 1957, this journal is the pre-eminent forum for the presentation of research material on Indian and South Asian societies and for the discussion of different approaches to their sociological study. Contributions to Indian Sociology publishes neither purely theoretical essays nor purely ethnographic accounts but favours papers in which data and theory are mutually related.

Contributions to Indian Sociology presents all perspectives and points of view concerning Indian and South Asian societies. This is evidenced by the fact that recent issues have carried articles by American, British, Canadian, Dutch, French, German, Indian, Israeli and Malaysian scholars.

This journal is an indispensable and highly regarded research forum for the understanding of South Asian society, culture and religion which also provides theoretical insights which could be applied to the study of other developing societies.
