ISRAEL LAW REVIEW

The Israel Law Review is the oldest and most acclaimed Israeli law journal published in English. Since its establishment in 1966 by the Law Faculty at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, the Israel Law Review has served as a leading source of legal scholarship on Israeli law and on issues relevant to Israeli society.

As of 2009, the Israel Law Review is published under the auspices and management of the Hebrew University's Minerva Center for Human Rights. Under this new stewardship, it focuses on scholarship in the fields of human rights, public law and international law and examines the application of legal norms under conditions of conflict and political uncertainty, highlighting the relevance of the Israeli experience in these fields to other parts of the world and that of other societies to Israel. The Israel Law Review is peer-reviewed and presently indexed in major databases and abstracting services including Lexis, Hein, and EBSCO.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Israel Law Review gratefully acknowledges the very generous financial assistance provided by the P.E.F. Israel Endowment Funds, in memory of the funds' founder and first president, Judge Julian W. Mack and by the permanent endowment fund established by Abraham D. Slavitt of Norwalk, Connecticut, U.S.A., in memory of his beloved wife, Jennie A. Slavitt. The Israel Law Review also gratefully acknowledges the financial assistance of the Faculty of Law, the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. The Minerva Center for Human Rights at the Hebrew University gratefully acknowledges the financial assistance provided by the Minerva Foundation for the publication of the Israel Law Review.

Special acknowledgements are due to Phillip and Estelle Mizock Chair for the funding of "On Richard A. Posner's Not a Suicide Pact: The Constitution in a Time of National Emergency"; and to the Faculty of Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem and the Faculty of Law, Georg-August-Universität, Göttingen for jointly funding "Human Dignity: Comparative Perspectives." The seminar was held with the cooperation of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation.
