THE JOURNAL OF ECONOMIC HISTORY is published in March, June, September, and December for The Economic History Association by the Graduate School of Business Administration, New York University. The JOURNAL is sent to all members of the Association. Membership rates are: student membership, $3.00; regular membership, United States, $6.00; library subscriptions, $9.00; regular membership, foreign, $6.25. Applications and inquiries concerning membership and single copies should be addressed to HERMAN E. KROOSS, New York University, 100 Trinity Place, New York, N.Y. 10006.

Articles on economic history and related aspects of history or economics will be considered for publication by the editor. Those manuscripts incorporating the results of detailed original research should include some discussion of the broader significance of the subject matter. Contributions should be typed double spaced; footnotes, also double spaced, should be grouped separately at the end of the paper. If possible, two copies of each manuscript should be submitted; and each manuscript should be accompanied by a statement of the approximate number of words which it contains. Prospective contributors may obtain from the Editorial Office a copy of "Suggestions to Contributors," a list of the major literary and stylistic customs of the JOURNAL.

Articles and correspondence relating to editorial functions of THE JOURNAL OF ECONOMIC HISTORY should be directed to HUGH G. J. AITKEN, Editor, Department of Economics, Amherst College, Amherst, Massachusetts 01002. Books for review and all related correspondence should be sent to RONDO CAMERON, Journal of Economic History Review Office, Social Science Building, The University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis. 53706.
