EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The Department of Economics of the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México is seeking a qualified person to teach a course in economic history in its Master's Degree program. A working knowledge of Spanish is required. The successful candidate will become a full time member of the department. The salary will depend upon qualifications. (The average salary for persons with the Ph.D. is in the range $17–18,000 after taxes.) Interested persons should correspond directly with the chairman, Professor Pedro Aspe, Rio Hondo Num. 1, Mexico 20, D. F.

FELLOWSHIPS

The Newberry Library, 60 West Walton Street, Chicago, Illinois 60610, announces short-term resident fellowships for individual research in any field appropriate to the Newberry's collections; appointments with stipends of $600 per month, for periods not exceeding three months. Applicants must have the Ph.D. or have completed all requirements except the dissertation. Preference will be given to applicants who particularly need to use Newberry resources and to applicants from outside the Chicago area. Also, resident fellowships for unaffiliated scholars who are not employed professionally as such, who have the Ph.D., and who propose to use the Newberry as a scholarly base; stipends of $250 or $500 per calendar quarter depending on need. Applicants must be working on a specific research project in a field appropriate to the Newberry's collections, and must anticipate spending at least six to eight hours a week in residence and participating fully in the intellectual life of the Newberry. Stipends may be renewed quarterly up to one year; after the first year fellowship status may be renewed annually, but without stipend. In both cases completed applications are due November 1, 1980.

The Columbia University Society of Fellows in the Humanities, with grants from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the William R. Kenan Trust, will appoint a number of postdoctoral fellows in the humanities for the academic year 1981–1982. Fellows newly appointed for 1981–1982 must have received the Ph.D. between January 1, 1979, and July 1, 1981. Stipend of $16,250, one half for independent research and one half for teaching in the undergraduate program in general education. Additional funds are available in support of such needs as research materials and typing. Application forms can be obtained by writing to the Director, Room 1509, International Affairs Building, 420 West 118th Street, Columbia University, New York, NY 10027. Deadline for receipt of completed application forms is November 1, 1980.

In addition, the Society will appoint two Senior Fellows in the humanities for the academic year 1981–1982. Awards will be made to scholars of particular accomplishment and promise who have held the doctorate and who have been teaching full-time for at least five years but have not yet received tenure, and who have at least one significant publication to their credit. Preference will be given to candidates qualified for promotion to tenure but for whom a tenured position does not currently exist. Senior Fellows for 1981–1982 will receive a stipend of $21,000 plus regular faculty benefits. Additional funds are available in support of such needs as research materials and typing. Senior Fellows will teach half time in courses determined in consultation with the appropriate departments at Columbia. Appointments as Senior Fellows in the Society will normally be renewed for a second year, with the possibility of a third year in particular cases. Candidates must be nominated by the chairmen of their departments or of an appropriate interdepartmental committee, either at Columbia or at their present institution. Applications from individuals will not be considered. Nominations must be accompanied by a complete curriculum vitae, including a list of publications, papers read, as well as work in progress, and a statement from the candidate of his/her scholarly project and goals. It should also indicate the number of years of full time instruction. In addition to the letter of nomination, the candidate should request at least two further letters of support from senior colleagues in his/her field who are familiar with his/her scholarly work. The nominating chairman's letter of endorsement should assess the candidate's qualities as a scholar and teacher; it should also describe his/her actual situation in the department, addressing such issues as: the prospects of a tenure opening for which the candidate would be eligible; whether or not the department has voted for promotion to tenure; the basis for the department's nomination of the candidate to the Society of Fellows (i.e., vote of the executive or other committee, chairman's or dean's decision). Nominations and supporting materials must be received no later than November 1, 1980.

ERRATUM

The reviewer of Agrar fattigdom i Sydsverige under 1800-talet in the March 1980 issue of the JOURNAL (pp. 197-98) was incorrectly identified as Kurt Wickham of Uppsala University. His correct name is Kurt Wickman. The editors regret the error.
