We are pleased to announce the publication of the second volume of the Proceedings of the World Conference on Henry Sidgwick. All individual subscribers to Utilitas will receive a complimentary copy of the volume, which is entitled Henry Sidgwick: Ethics, Psychics, Politics, edited by Placido Bucolo, Roger Crisp, and Bart Schultz, and is published by the Dipartimento di Scienze Umane di Catania. The volume contains seventeen essays, which appear in parallel English and Italian versions, by leading scholars in the field.

The first volume, which was also distributed to individual subscribers to Utilitas, was entitled Henry Sidgwick: Happiness and Religion, edited by Placido Bucolo, Roger Crisp, and Bart Schultz, and published by the Dipartimento di Scienze Umane di Catania, in 2007. Essays by Giuseppe Acocella, Placido Bucolo, Roger Crisp, Alan Gauld, Mariko Nakano-Okuno, Alan Ryan, Bart Schultz, John Skorupski, and Carmelo Vigna appeared in both English and Italian.

All those involved in utilitarian studies will be grateful to Professor Bucolo for his energy and dedication in promoting Sidgwick studies, and for fostering the international collaborations that have given rise to these splendid volumes.
