

Editors' Notes

The Council on Research in Economic History announces a prize of one thousand dollars for the best paper on the subject, "Interpreting Long-Term Economic Growth: An Evaluation of Past Attempts and Future Possibilities." Competition is open to all scholars, the judges only being excluded. The prize will be awarded if, in the opinion of the judges, the best manuscript is an acceptable one. The judges may, in their discretion, divide the prize between two of the contestants.

Essays should not exceed 40,000 words, be in English, and conform to the major literary and typographical conventions of THE JOURNAL OF ECONOMIC HISTORY. Manuscripts should be submitted, in duplicate, to Harold F. Williamson, Secretary, The Council on Research in Economic History, 629 Noyes Street, Evanston, Illinois, and be postmarked no later than July 15, 1964. The manuscripts should contain no evidence of the author's identity, but should be accompanied by an identifying letter.

The annual meeting of the Conference on the History of Western America will be held in Denver, Colorado October 11-13, 1962, at the Albany Hotel, with the University of Denver as the host institution. Robert G. Athearn of the University of Colorado is program chairman, and Allen D. Breck of the University of Denver is in charge of local arrangements. Papers to be presented will represent disciplines in the social sciences, the humanities, and the sciences. A preliminary program is available.
