

A History of Small Business in America

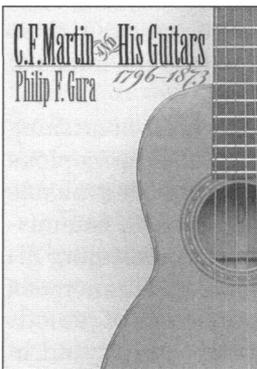

MANSEL G. BLACKFORD

Second Edition

"A cogent and readable addition to our understanding of American business, one that should be strongly considered by anyone teaching an American business history course."—Business History Review

The Luther Hartwell Hodges Series on Business, Society, and the State

232 pp. $45.00 cloth / $18.95 paper

Yankee Don't Go Home!

Mexican Nationalism, American Business Culture, and the Shaping of Modern Mexico, 1920–1950

JULIO MORENO

"Moreno address[es] important issues of U.S. business in Mexico. . . . He offers extensive new evidence, analysis, and a highly readable narrative. . . . A very significant contribution."—Linda B. Hall, University of New Mexico

The Luther Hartwell Hodges Series on Business, Society, and the State

Approx. 384 pp., 30 illus. $59.95 cloth / $21.95 paper

C. F. Martin and His Guitars, 1796–1873

PHILIP F. GURA

"An incredibly valuable addition to the understanding of our company and family archives. No one before has taken the time to unravel his amazing story with such fastidious detail."—C. F. Martin IV, Chairman and CEO, C. F. Martin & Co.

352 pp., 97 color / 88 b&w illus. $45.00 cloth

America's Instrument

The Banjo in the Nineteenth Century

PHILIP F. GURA & JAMES F. BOLLMAN

ASCAP-Deems Taylor Special Citation, American Society of Composers, Authors & Publishers

"Beautifully produced."—Times Literary Supplement

"This attractive, finely printed book relates the history of the production, distribution, and marketing of the banjo over the course of the 19th century."

—AB Bookman's Weekly

400 pp., 97 color / 156 b&w illus. $49.95 cloth

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA PRESS

at bookstores or 800-848-6224 | www.uncpress.unc.edu

"A book of major importance, the first to describe the realities of the new economy."

—Alfred D. Chandler, Jr., Isidor Straus Professor of Business History Emeritus, Harvard Business School

"A must-read in understanding the historic transformation affecting business and the economy."

—Burton G. Malkiel, author of A Random Walk Down Wall Street

FARRAR
STRAUS
GIROUX

www.fsgbooks.com

Boydell & Brewer

Vauxhall Motors and the Luton Economy, 1900-2002

Len Holden

This story traces the rise and decline of the once mighty “Big Six” company, Vauxhall, which in the third quarter of the twentieth century became one of the largest car companies in Britain and Europe. Its later decline was set in motion by the decisions of a large multinational, with terrible consequences for the workforce, reducing it from over 35,000 in the early 1970s to below two thousand in 2002. This book also tells the story of the British motorcar industry in general, and its subsequent decline.

*49 b/w illus, 268pp, 0 85155 068 1, $39.95
Available September 2003*

668 Mt. Hope Avenue, Rochester, NY 14620

Tel: 585-275-0419 * Fax: 585-271-8778 * www.boydellandbrewer.com

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Manuscripts are considered for publication on the understanding that they are not concurrently under consideration elsewhere and that the material—in substance as well as form—has not been previously published.

Three copies of the manuscript should be submitted.

Authors should identify themselves only on a separate title page that provides name, mailing address, and telephone number. Authors must also remember not to identify themselves in the body of the manuscript; specifically, references to their own work in the text should be in the third person, and citations should be written without possessive pronouns—not “See my”

Potential contributors should initially submit hard copy, not diskettes, but it will save considerable work for all parties in the event of acceptance if authors follow a few rules from the beginning:

- In general, use as few formatting commands as possible.
- Left justify text.
- Do not hyphenate words at the end of lines.
- ALL material—including extracted quotations and notes—must be double spaced.
- Notes should be numbered consecutively and citations should be placed as footnotes or endnotes formatted as indicated by The Chicago Manual of Style (1993).
- Each table and figure must be accompanied by a complete source.

Each article should be accompanied by an abstract of 75 to 100 words outlining the main point(s) of the paper and placing the article in context. Subheads should be used to divide the manuscript into three or four sections (or more, depending on length). We do not have an upper or lower page limit, but articles usually run between 25 and 50 typescript pages, including notes and other material.

We are always eager to publish illustrations, but authors should not include originals of illustrative materials at the time of submission; photocopies of such material may be included. Authors are responsible for obtaining all illustrative materials and permissions for reproduction, and for writing captions.

Authors of accepted manuscripts will receive two copies of the issue in which the article appears and twenty-five offprints.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

We use the 14th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (1993) and spell and hyphenate words according to Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary.

The journal encourages authors to use gender-neutral prose in all cases where it is not anachronistic to do so; male nouns and pronouns should not be used to refer to people of both sexes. We use the day-month-year form for dates, as in 11 Feb. 1998, in the notes, but in the text, dates are written month-day-year, as in February 11, 1998. Double quotation marks should be used for direct quotation; single quotation marks are used for quoted material inside quotations.

SAMPLE CITATION FORMS

Book: Alfred D. Chandler Jr., The Visible Hand: The Managerial Revolution in American Business (Cambridge, Mass., 1977), 321–2.

Journal: Charles Cheape, “Not Politicians but Sound Businessmen: Norton Company and the Third Reich,” Business History Review 62 (Autumn 1988): 444–66.

Note that we do not include the publisher in book citations. We do not use loc. cit., op. cit., or idem., but ibid. (not italicized) may be used.

0007-6805(200323)77:3:1-J