THE CELEBRATED MARY ASTELL

An Early English Feminist

Ruth Perry

Foreword by Catharine R. Stimpson

This is the first full-scale biography of Mary Astell (1666–1731), a major English feminist intellectual. An extraordinary, self-made woman, Astell wrote in defense of women's rights as a means for exploring the nature of power and authority in human society. Her story helps us to understand the intellectual roots of the modern feminist movement.
