NEW—2ND EDITION!

Puerto Ricans in the United States: A Contemporary Portrait

EDNA ACOSTA-BELÉN AND CARLOS E. SANTIAGO

“An excellent panoramic view of Puerto Ricans in the United States.... [It] will become the reader on Puerto Rican Studies and a prominent complement to the ethnic studies literature, and well it should.”—Carlos Vargas-Ramos, Contemporary Sociology • pb $28.50
Latinos/as: Exploring Diversity and Change

The Political Construction of Brazil: Society, Economy, and State Since Independence

LUIZ CARLOS BRESSER-PEREIRA

“A magisterial history of Brazil emphasizing economic phases and industrial policies.”—Choice • hc $85

NOW IN PAPERBACK!

Latin America in International Politics: Challenging US Hegemony

JOSEPH S. TULCHIN

“A must-read for those interested in Latin American history, international relations, and comparative politics.”

—José de Arimatéia de Cruz, Latin American Politics and Society • pb $27.50

Polity: Demystifying Democracy in Latin America and Beyond

JOE FOWERAKER

“A highly innovative and successful attempt to reshape our thinking about democracy in general and Latin American political systems in particular.”—Evelyne Huber, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill • hc $67

Venezuela's Polarized Politics:

The Paradox of Direct Democracy Under Chávez

ANA L. MALLEN AND MARÍA PILAR GARCÍA-GUADILLA

“Brilliant.... One of the most important books on Venezuela that have come out in recent years.”

—Daniel Hellinger, Webster University

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial Policy

The Journal of Latin American Studies is published four times a year, in February, May, August and November. Its editorial offices are located at the Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London. The editorial board comprises area studies specialists based in the United Kingdom from all the principal social science disciplines, including history.

The Journal aims to publish recent research in the field of Latin American studies in economics, geography, politics, international relations, sociology, social anthropology and history. Articles on literature and the arts are not normally included, but the editors are pleased to consider contributions in the field of intellectual and cultural history. Articles with an interdisciplinary approach are particularly welcome.

Manuscript Submission (visit <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jlas>)

Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contributions. They should not be under consideration by another journal, nor have been published or be awaiting publication elsewhere. Translations of articles that have already been published will not be accepted. If an author is publishing a closely related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated in a cover note to the editors. Authors of articles published in the Journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper.

Articles should be between 10,000 and 12,000 words, including footnotes, tables etc. The Journal is published in English, but articles may also be submitted in Spanish or Portuguese for peer review; if accepted for publication, the responsibility for translating articles rests with the author.

For full instructions on submissions and journal style, visit www.cambridge.org/blas.

The Journal publishes commissioned book reviews in each issue. Not all books received can be reviewed, and editorial policy gives preference to reviews of books regarded as being of major importance for the disciplines covered by the Journal. Unsolicited reviews cannot be considered.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

All editorial correspondence should be addressed to The Editors, Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK, or sent to jlas@sas.ac.uk.

Proofs

Proofs of accepted articles will be sent to authors as pdf files for checking and correction of typesetting errors. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.

This issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
