

SPECIAL OFFER FOR NEW MEMBERS (AND OLD ONES)

While the supply lasts, the African Studies Association is offering new members a chance to obtain a file of recent back issues of the ASA Bulletin at the following rates:

The year December 1966, April 1967, September 1967
... $6.00
The year December 1967, April 1968, September 1968
... $6.00

Members may also purchase any single issue from September 1966 through September 1968 at a special price of $2.50 an issue.

Orders should be sent to the African Studies Association
622 West 113th Street
New York, New York 10025

INTERNATIONAL VISITORS

At this time, three Africans are traveling in the United States under the auspices of the State Department International Visitor Grants Program. They may be contacted through their respective programming agencies, the Council on Leaders and Specialists (CLS), 818 18th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., telephone 202-298-7454, and the Government Affairs Institute (GAI), 1619 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., telephone 202-265-8300.

Mr. Frederic Kibassa-Maliba, National Minister of Youth Activities and Sports, in Lubumbashi, Katanga, arrived on November 29 for a 60-day visit being programmed by William G. Allen of CLS.

Mr. Ato Woobishet Marsie-Hazan, Special Assistant to the Chief of Political Affairs, Addis Ababa, will be here until January 6 on a visit programmed by Frank S. Lancetti of CLS.

Mr. Moncef Jaafar, Chief Editor of the Destourian Party French-Language Newspaper in Tunis, will be in the United States until the end of December. His program officer is Richard S. Dawson of GAI.

GRANT NEWS

Foreign Area Fellowships Awarded for 1968-69

The Social Science Research Council and American Council of Learned Societies have announced the award and acceptance of the following 34 Foreign Area Fellowships for 1968-69 in the African Studies Program:

Philip Ehrensaft, Ph.D. candidate in sociology, Columbia University, for research in Nigeria on entrepreneurial politics
Edward J. Schumacher, Ph.D. candidate in government, Columbia University, for preparation of a dissertation on bureaucracy and politics in Mali and Senegal (renewal)

Robert H. Bates, Ph.D. candidate in political science, M.I.T., for preparation of a dissertation on the role of the Zambian mineworkers' union in the communication of government labor policy (renewal)

Fremont E. Besmer, Ph.D. candidate in ethnomusicology, Columbia University, for Hausa language training, guided reading in history and political science relating to Africa, and research in the United States, Nigeria, and Ghana on Hausa traditional music in northern Nigeria

Beverly A. Bolser, Ph.D. candidate in African history, Boston University, for research in Tanzania and Western Europe on a history of the town of Ujiji

Robert B. Charlick, Ph.D. candidate in political science, University of California, Los Angeles, for course work in agricultural economics, rural sociology, and agriculture, guided reading relating to Africa, and research in the United States, France, and Niger on social and political factors in agricultural innovation

Philip E. Chartrand, Ph.D. candidate in political science, Syracuse University, for completion of research and preparation of a dissertation in England, Rhodesia, and the United States on determinants of British policies toward Rhodesian independence (renewal)

Lucie A. Colvin, Ph.D. candidate in history, Columbia University, for research in the United States, England, France, Senegal, and Ghana on nineteenth-century West African diplomacy in relation to African kingdoms

Alison L. Des Forges, Ph.D. candidate in history, Yale University, for completion of research in Rwanda on social and political change in Rwanda (renewal)

Fredric L. Dubow, Ph.D. candidate in sociology, University of California, Berkeley, for intensive Swahili language training, guided reading in African history, and research in the United States and Tanzania on legal change and its impact in Tanzania

David B. Evans, Ph.D. candidate in international development education, Stanford University, for completion of research and preparation of a dissertation in Uganda and the United States on characteristics of East African secondary school teachers (renewal)

Harvey M. Feinberg, Ph.D. candidate in history, Boston University, for preparation of a dissertation on the history of Elmina and relations between its Dutch and African populations, 1700-1815 (renewal)

David R. Giltrow, Ph.D. candidate in communications, Syracuse University, for intensive Swahili language training and research in Tanzania on school children's comprehension of basic motion picture elements

Anita J. Glaze, Ph.D. candidate in African art history, Indiana University, for Dyula language training and research in Western Europe, Senegal, and Ivory Coast on Senufo art

Bruce T. Grindal, Ph.D. Candidate in anthropology, Indiana University, for completion of research and preparation of a dissertation in Ghana and the United States on education and culture change among the Sissala of Northern Ghana (renewal) Margaret J. Hay, Ph.D. candidate in history, University of Wisconsin, for intensive Swahili language training and historical research in Kenya on economic change at the village level

Kennell Jackson, Jr., Ph.D. candidate in history, University of California, Los Angeles, for completion of research and preparation of a dissertation on an ethnohistory of the oral traditions of the Akamba of Kenya

Susan B. Kaplow, Ph.D. candidate in history, Columbia University, for intensive Fante language training and research in England and Ghana on sociopolitical relations of nineteenth-century Gold Coast traders in Ghana

Michael D. Levin, Ph.D. candidate in sociology, Princeton University, for completion of research and preparation of a dissertation in West Cameroun and the United States on the indigenous economy of a Bakossi village (renewal)

Bernth O. Lindfors, Ph.D. candidate in English, University of California, Los Angeles, for research and preparation of a dissertation on a history of Nigerian literature in English (renewal)

Joseph C. Miller, Ph.D. candidate in history, University of Wisconsin, for research and preparation of a dissertation in Portugal and Angola on a history of the Imbangala state of Kasanje to 1900

Thomas D. Moodie, Ph.D. candidate in sociology of religion, Harvard University, for research in South Africa on the origins and development of the "civil religion" of Afrikaner nationalism

August H. Nimitz, Ph.D. candidate in government, Indiana University, for research in England and Tanzania on the contribution of the Muslim tariqa to development, 1880-1967

George N. Preston, Ph.D. candidate in fine arts, Columbia University, for guided reading in history, anthropology, and sociology relating to West Africa, and research in the United States, Europe and Ghana on Akan funerary terracottas, wood sculptures, and other symbols of leadership

Lucy G. Quimby, Ph.D. candidate in history, University of Wisconsin, for Bambara language training and research in Paris, Dakar, and Mali on the history of the Hamalliyya in Mali

John B. Riddell, Ph.D. candidate in geography, Pennsylvania State University, for preparation of a dissertation on the spatial development of the transportation infrastructure of Sierra Leone (renewal)

Dov Ronen, Ph.D. candidate in government, Indiana University, for completion of research and preparation of a dissertation in Paris and the United States on education and the role of the educated in the process of modernization (renewal)

Joel Samoff, Ph.D. candidate in political science, University of Wisconsin, for research in Tanzania on the political process in a single-party state

Harold E. Scheub, Ph.D. candidate in African languages and literature University of Wisconsin, for preparation of a dissertation on the oral and written literature of the Nguni languages of South Africa (renewal)

Francis G. Snyder, LL.B. candidate, University of Paris, for Arabic language training and course work and guided reading in Paris in law, anthropology, history, and sociology relating to West Africa

Charles C. Stewart, Ph.D. candidate in history, University of Oxford, for research in Senegal and Mauritania on the Islamization of the Senegal basin

Heidi S. Tauss, Ph.D. candidate in political science, Northwestern University, for research in Ghana on relations between elites and constituencies at different governmental levels in urban areas of Africa

Louis W. Truschel, Ph.D. candidate in history, Northwestern University, for Herero language training and research in Botswana on a history of the Herero-Tswana relations in Botswana

Thomas W. Waltz, Ph.D. candidate in economics, Northwestern University, for Swahili language training and course work and guided reading in London in history, political science, sociology, and political geography relating to East Africa

(from SSRC Items, September 1968)

Foundation Grants Relevant to Africa

The following awards were announced in the September 1968 issue of Foundation News:

Rockefeller Foundation, N.Y., $14,500 to International Graphic Arts Society, N.Y. for print loan collections at predominantly Negro colleges

Ford Foundation, $337,555 ($53,810 to Center for Applied Linguistics, D.C.; $139,745 to University of California; and $144,000 to University of East Africa) for survey of language use and training in East Africa

$69,000 to Southern Illinois University to establish

English-language program in Lagos, Nigeria

Allen (Vivian B.) Foundation, N.Y., $10,000 to African-American Institute, N.Y.

American Metal Climax Foundation, N.Y., $20,000 to African-American Institute, N.Y.

Carnegie Corporation of New York, $15,000 to African-American Institute, D.C. to plan informational and educational activities

New World Foundation, N.Y., $36,000 to Runnymede Trust, England, for survey of race relations in Britain

$10,000 to University of Denver Graduate School of International Studies, Colo., to establish international race relations program

Rockefeller Foundation, N.Y., $25,000 to Museum Trustees of Kenya for research in Centre for Prehistory and Paleontology

Carnegie Corporation of N.Y., $30,000 to African-American Institute, D.C., for travel in the U.S. and Canada by scholars and administrators from Africa

Ford Foundation, N.Y., $342,125 to Republic of Algeria for English-language teaching at University of Algiers

$267,000 to Government of Western Nigeria for graduate fellowship program at University of Ife, Institute of Administration

$60,000 to Trust for the Development of Education Overseas

England, to improve education in Africa $127,500 to University of East Africa for work experience for students before final academic year $300,000 to University of Ghana for faculty training, recruitment, and housing
 $221,000 to University of Ibadan, Nigeria, for research and training unit in the behavioral sciences $250,000 to University of Lagos, Nigeria, to establish Comparative Education Center for curriculum improvement and teacher training
 $392,000 to West African Examinations Council for staff training program in educational measurement
Merrill (Charles E.) Trust, N.Y., $20,000 to Strathmore College, Kenya, for scholarships, books, and service equipment Rockefeller Foundation, N.Y. About $100,000 to University of Ibadan, Nigeria, for support of Institute of African Studies
Babcock, (Mary Reynolds) Foundation, N.C., $25,000 to American Health Education for African Development, N.Y. to complete nursing education center in Sierra Leone Ford Foundation, N.Y., $62,000 to Republic of Algeria for survey of family-planning attitudes and practices
Raskob Foundation for Catholic Activities, Del., $20,000 to St.
 John's Hospital, Malawi, Africa
Rockefeller Foundation, N.Y., $12,500 to Makerere University College, Uganda, for research on schistosomiasis $25,000 to University of Ibadan Department of Preventive and Social Medicine, Nigeria, for studies on children infected with schistosomiasis
Young (Irvin L.) Foundation, Wis., $18,000 to Baptist Mid Missions for medical work in Koumra, Africa
Carnegie Corporation of New York, $10,000 to Council on Foreign Relations, N.Y., for Anglo-American conference on southern Africa Ford Foundation, $30,800 to Stanford University, Calif., for comparative studies of political change in India, Japan, Mexico, and Nigeria
 $139,745 to University of California for sociolinguistic survey in East Africa $400,000 to Northwestern University, Ill., for "Developing National Unity in Africa" project
Munitap Foundation, N.Y., $14,000 to famine Relief Committee, Kenya
Rockefeller Brothers Fund, N.Y., $35,000 to African-American Institute, D.C., for work of Ethiopian Women's Welfare Assoc.
Ford Foundation, $875,000 to National Liberation Council of Ghana for economic advisory assistance $22,000 to University of East Africa to convert library at College of Nairobi from Dewey Decimal to Library of Congress classification
 $127,500 to University of East Africa for vacation work program
Rockefeller Brothers Fund, N.Y., $27,000 to Trustees of the Kenya
 National Parks for wildlife education center
Rockefeller Foundation, N.Y., $11,000 to East African Common Services Organization, Kenya, for Director's Office of East African Agriculture and Forestry Research Organization
Ford Foundation, N.Y., $500,000 to African-American Institute, D.C., for exchange programs

Rockefeller Foundation

$450,000 to International Maize and Wheat Improvement Center, Mexico, for operating costs, for Central American Corn Improvement Project, and for regional maize improvement program in Kenya

$14,788 to Michigan State University for agricultural economics research in Tanzania

Ford Foundation Grant for the International Library of African Music

The January 1969 issue of Africa notes that the International Library of African Music at Roodeport, South Africa, which has the world's largest collection of recorded African music, has received a grant of $145,000 from the Ford Foundation. Dr. Hugh Tracey, Director of the Library, will use the grant to expand the geographical coverage of his recordings, particularly in West Africa, and to produce textbooks and other indigenous teaching materials for use in African schools.

PUBLICATIONS

From the Scandinavian Institute

The following are included among the Institute's publications, listed in the September 1968 issue of the Newsletter of the Scandinavian Institute of African Studies:

- Africana in the Scholarly Libraries of Scandinavia, No. 13, No. 14
(the Institute's own accessions) and No. 15
Hamrell, Sven (ed.), Refugee Problems in Africa
Rensburg, Patrick van, Development and Education in an Emerging Country
Klingelhofer, E.L., A Bibliography of Psychological Research and Writings on Africa
Meyer-Heiselberg, R., Notes from the liberated African Department in the Archives at Fourah Bay College, Freetown, Sierra Leone (Research Report No. 1)

Background and Work Papers on Linguistics

The Survey of Language Use and Language Teaching in Eastern Africa, November 1, 1968 announces that the following paper will be reproduced and sent free of charge to anyone requesting it:

BWP 14. The Buloba Language Unit, "A Report on Diagnostic English Tests Administered to Eleven Districts in Uganda in February-May, 1968," dated July 1, 1968. This 27-page document explains the need for, and functions of, language units in Uganda and presents tests designed as one of the techniques used by the Buloba Language Unit in evaluating the English course used in Uganda primary schools. Tests and results are shown in detail.

The address of the Survey Office is P.O. Box 30641, Nairobi, Kenya.