INTERNATIONAL PRODUCTS LIABILITY

by Warren Freedman

Published by William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1995

LC 95-16498; ISBN 0-89941-970-4

xiv, 991 pages; Newly Bound $95.00

As international trade has rapidly expanded, consumers worldwide have grown concerned with the international law of products liability.

Professor Freedman's latest effort reflects a complete reorganization of his earlier work published in 1986 by Kluwer Law Books. This new edition both updates and expands the author's original work. Each section is completely rewritten to reflect the changes of the last decade. In addition, valuable new sections have been added including:

- ✓ The Lawsuit by U.S. Plaintiffs against Foreign Governments in U.S. Courts
- ✓ Arbitration in Switzerland
- ✓ Adequacy of Notice of Product Defect
- ✓ The Uniform Commercial Code and the "Vienna Convention"
- ✓ Federal Preemption of Strict Liability
- ✓ Comparison of CIG with UCC and Import of UPA

The new Hein edition is focused entirely on the international aspects of products liability. Defenses to products liability which were covered in the earlier edition, are being completely updated and expanded and will appear in a companion volume to be published later in 1996.

Professor Freedman's latest release should be of great value to both the expert and novice practitioner in this rapidly expanding field of law. Attorneys, law professors, students, and researchers will find this book indispensable as it combines both U.S. and foreign law in one work. Both substantive and procedural questions are answered in this single volume.

NO RISK, AVAILABLE ON A 30-DAY APPROVAL!
