New Perspectives in Christian Thought

Christology In Context The Earliest Christian Response to Jesus

Marinus de Jonge
Foreword by Wayne A. Meeks

New Testament scholar Marinus de Jonge examines the dynamics of the first hundred or so years of the church, describing patterns of belief in relation to patterns of life. "Like a magisterial tour guide, de Jonge takes the reader to the important texts, and relates their key concepts to their biblical and Jewish backgrounds and to their use in early Christianity. Scholarly, but never pedantic."

—Leander E. Keck, Dean and Winkley Professor of Biblical Theology, The Divinity School, Yale University

EXPLORING BOUNDARIES OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT

Greek Apologists of the Second Century Robert M. Grant

A distinguished historian clarifies an important chapter in the history of Christianity in this introduction to the theologians who addressed the Greco-Roman world in the second century. "A culmination of a great many detailed and technical investigations....Grant draws together the observations of a lifetime to give us one of his most important books."

—Henry Chadwick, former Regius Professor of Divinity,
Oxford University

Johannine Faith and Liberating Community

David Rensberger

"Not only the most interesting work on the Fourth Gospel that I have read in many years, it is also one of the most persuasive examples of how to do biblical theology. Rensberger does not blink at the problems, but thinks through them to hear in John a voice long muffled by individualistic piety, a voice that speaks of liberation."

—Wayne A. Meeks, Woolsey Professor of Biblical Studies and Fellow of Calhoun College, Yale University

Inheriting Our Mothers' Gardens

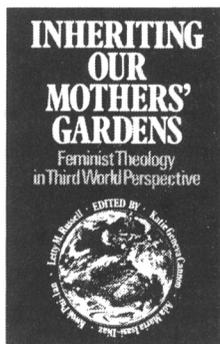

Feminist Theology in Third World Perspective

Edited by Letty M. Russell, Kwok Pui-lan, Ada María Isasi-Díaz, Katie Geneva Cannon

"This is a rare and powerful book, ahead of its time and unique in its contribution to theology. The stories told are profound, delicate, refined, passionate....No one will read this book without...gaining religious insight into the role of history in shaping hope."

IN
RELIGIONS

Edited by
HAROLD COWARD,
EVA DARGYAY,
and
RONALD NEUFELDT

Developed principally for use in introductory courses in the study of religious traditions of the East, this anthology offers a selection of readings from primary texts of India, China, and Japan.

The selections are arranged both chronologically and thematically within religious traditions and include readings from Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism (including Tibetan Buddhism), Sikhism, Early Chinese thought, Confucianism, Taoism, Mao Tse Tung, Shintoism, and Japan's new religions (Tenrikyo and Sokka Gakkai).

Throughout the anthology, a concerted effort has been made to present more than the usual short excerpts. As much as possible larger excerpts have been included to give students a better sense of significant developments within traditions. As well, doctrinal elements have been combined with story to make these traditions more than museum pieces for students.
