

E R R A T A

Readers of this Journal will recall the provocative article in Vol. 2, No. 2 by John Smail entitled An Autonomous History of South-East Asia. This article has aroused considerable comment. It is all-the-more unfortunate then that it was marred by fifty or more misprints and omissions. With this issue of the Journal we have changed to a new type and printing machine, and we hope such errors as committed before will remain merely the follies of our youth. We attach a list of the more important of the misprints in Mr. Smail's article.

Page/Line	As Printed	Should Be
80 5 from bottom	leader-finally	leader—finally
81 11 „	is anti-colonial	is anti- colonial
83 1	because	becomes
86. note 17. 2.	(May 1961)	(May 1960)
87 note 18. 7	least century	least a century
91 20	as printed: unfavourable connotation for the continuation should be: unfavourable connotation to describe cultural change under a foreign regime (decay, disruption, etc.) and words of favourable connotation for the continuation.
92 note 23. 1.	Seeroto	Soeroto
ditto 7.	The first A. J. Piekaar.	The first, A. J. Piekaar.
96 2.	It is only pushing	It is only by pushing
96 29	Parindara	Parindra
97 note 24. 6-7 from bottom	the struggle the Dutch	the struggle against the Dutch
100 14 from bottom	It has to refer; on the	It has to refer, on the
101. 11	history its history	history, its history