

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|                                                                                            | Page |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Colonialism and the African Liberation CommitteeOscar Kambona . . . . .                | 1    |
| Publications sur l'ancienne Afrique française au sud du SaharaRobert Cornevin. . . . . | 7    |
| The African-American InstituteJulien Engel . . . . .                                   | 13   |
| African Studies in Canada and the United Kingdom . . . . .                                 | 19   |
| International African Seminar. . . . .                                                     | 23   |
| Africana at Duquesne University LibraryHwa-Wei Lee. . . . .                            | 25   |
| Joint Committee on African Resources. . . . .                                              | 28   |
| West African Languages CongressJoseph Greenberg. . . . .                               | 30   |
| Teaching Opportunities in Rhodesia . . . . .                                               | 31   |
| News and Notes . . . . .                                                                   | 32   |

Communications concerning articles for the Bulletin, News and Notes, etc., may be sent to the Editor, Professor Margaret L. Bates, Department of History, Goddard College, Plainfield, Vermont. Communications concerning subscriptions, membership, etc., should be addressed to the Executive Secretary, Professor L. Gray Cowan, African Studies Association, 409 West 117th Street, New York 27, New York.