INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE TO HONOR FRANÇOIS QUESNAY

The Society "Les Amis de François Quesnay" and the Institut National d'Études Démographiques will hold an international conference in honor of the tercentenary of the birth of François Quesnay (1694–1774), physician and father of physiocracy. The conference will take place in Versailles, France, from June 1 to 3, 1994. Themes of the conference are as follows: "Quesnay and the Scientific Method"; "Physiocracy, Agriculture, and Agronomy"; "Quesnay and Economic Analysis"; "Physiocracy as a Science for Man in Society"; and "Social and Political Practices of the Physiocrats." Further information and registration forms are available from Secrétariat Général Christine Théré, Institut National d'Études Démographiques, 27 rue du Commandeur, 75675 Paris Cedex 14, France; telephone 33 (1) 42 18 20 00; fax 33 (1) 42 18 21 99.

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS

The Columbia Society of Fellows in the Humanities, with grants from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the William R. Kenan Trust, will appoint a number of postdoctoral fellows in the humanities for the academic year 1994/95. The appointment carries with it the expectation of renewal for a second year. Candidates must have received the Ph.D. between January 1, 1988, and July 1, 1994. The stipend will be $30,000: one-half for independent research and one-half for teaching in the undergraduate program in general education. Additional funds are available to support research. Application forms can be obtained from the Director, Society of Fellows in the Humanities, Box 100 Central Mail Room, Columbia University, New York, NY 10027; telephone (212) 854-4631. The deadline for receipt of completed applications is October 15, 1993.
