CAMBRIDGE LIBRARY COLLECTION

Books of enduring scholarly value

In the spirit of Cambridge University Press's continued commitment to innovation and enterprise, the Cambridge Library Collection launched in July 2009, making an initial group of 475 out-of-print books available again. Another 1,000 will follow by the end of 2009 and 3,000 titles a year will be added as the program continues.

Drawing from the world-renowned collections in the Cambridge University Library, these books are carefully selected by experts in each subject area because of their scholarly importance or as landmarks in the history of their academic discipline.

Cambridge University Press is using state-of-the-art scanning machines to capture the contents of each book. The files are processed to give a consistently clear, crisp image, and the books finished to the high-quality standard for which the press is recognized around the world. The latest print-on-demand technology ensures that the books will remain available indefinitely.

The Cambridge Library Collection will revive books of enduring scholarly value across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, science and technology.

EDITORS:

CATHERINE REDGWELL
University College London, UK

ROBERT MCCORQUODALE
British Institute of International and Comparative Law, UK

Published for the British Institute of International and Comparative Law

International & Comparative Law Quarterly (ICLQ) publishes papers on public and private international law and also comparative law. It has maintained its pre-eminence as one of the earliest and most important journals of its kind, encompassing human rights and European law. The journal encourages innovative and original articles that explore the interconnectedness between the legal subject areas, moving across the boundaries that divide the law in a way that provides vital analysis at a time when formal distinctions, in scholarship and between jurisdictions, are becoming less relevant. The ICLQ attracts scholarship of the highest standard from around the world, which contributes to the maintenance of its truly international frame of reference. The 'Shorter Articles, Comments, and Notes' and 'Current Developments' sections particularly enable the discussion of highly topical legal issues.

International Journal of Cultural Property

Published for the International Cultural Property Society

EDITOR:

ALEXANDER A. BAUER
Queens College, CUNY, USA

International Journal of Cultural Property provides a vital, international, and multidisciplinary forum for the broad spectrum of views surrounding cultural property, cultural heritage, and related issues.

Its mission is:

- to develop new ways of dealing with cultural property debates
- to be a venue for the proposal or enumeration of pragmatic policy suggestions
- to be accessible to a wide audience of professionals, academics, and lay readers

This peer-reviewed journal publishes original research papers, case notes, documents of record, chronicles, conference reports, and book reviews.

Contributions come from the wide variety of fields implicated in the debates - law, anthropology, public policy, archaeology, art history, preservation, ethics, economics, museum-, tourism-, and heritage studies - and from a variety of perspectives and interests - indigenous, Western, and non-Western; academic, professional and amateur; consumers and producers - to promote meaningful discussion of the complexities, competing values, and other concerns that form the environment within which these disputes exist.

Asian Journal of International Law

EDITORS:

SIMON CHESTERMAN
*National University of Singapore and
New York University School of Law, Singapore*

SURYA P. SUBEDI
University of Leeds, UK

SIMON S.C. TAY
National University of Singapore, Singapore

The first issue of the Asian Journal of International Law will be published by Cambridge University Press in January 2011.

The Asian Journal of International Law is produced for the Asian Society of International Law by the National University of Singapore Faculty of Law and succeeds the Singapore Year Book of International Law.

It publishes peer-reviewed scholarly articles and book reviews on public and private international law. The regional focus of the Journal is broadly conceived. Some articles may focus specifically on Asian issues; others will bring one of the many Asian perspectives to bear on issues of global concern. Still others will be of more general interest to scholars, practitioners, and policymakers located in or working on Asia.

The Journal is published in English as a matter of practical convenience rather than political endorsement. English language reviews of books in other languages are particularly welcomed.

LEGAL THEORY

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Legal Theory is a quarterly, peer-reviewed journal that is edited to the highest standards with the assistance of a prestigious international editorial board. Legal Theory encompasses a broad range of topics, including but not limited to analytical jurisprudence, normative jurisprudence, policy analyses of legal institutions and doctrines, theories of law as a social or cultural phenomenon, and critical perspectives on law and legal institutions.

Submitted articles, books for review, and editorial correspondence should be sent to Legal Theory at legaltheory@sandiego.edu. Attention: Alessandria Driussi.

Preparation of manuscript. A separate title page should be prepared including the article title, short title for use as a running head (not to exceed 45 characters), author's full name and affiliation, and complete contact information (including phone number and e-mail address).

Manuscripts should be submitted in Word and should conform to Chicago style (however, see below concerning preparation of reference and note material). Manuscripts should be shorter than 15,000 words exclusive of notes. A separate abstract of no more than 150 words should be included. Submissions directly commenting on other works in the existing literature are welcome.

The entire manuscript (including notes and references) should be typed double-spaced with wide margins for copyediting. Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively. Authors of accepted articles will be asked to prepare a final version in the journal's style and to submit it on disk together with a hard copy version.

The cover letter, title page, abstract, and manuscripts are to be submitted via separate email attachments in MS Word.

Figures. If the manuscript is accepted for publication, the author must provide figures that are ready for photographic reproduction; they cannot be redrawn by the publisher, unless the author pays for the cost of such work. Charts, graphs, or other artwork must be drawn by a professional artist or computer generated on a laser printer, in black ink on white paper, and should remain legible after a 50% reduction. All labels and details on figures should be clearly printed.

References and notes. References should conform to the legal style of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation, 17th edition, published by the Harvard Law Review Association.

Copyediting and proofreading. The publisher reserves the right to copyedit and proofread all articles accepted for publication, but authors will be consulted in the case of any substantial changes. Page proofs of each article will be sent to the lead author for correction of typographical errors only.

General. Submitting an article to Legal Theory implies that it has not been published elsewhere and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors must obtain written permission to publish any material for which they do not own copyright. They will be asked to assign the copyright of their article, under certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press. Offprints may be purchased if ordered at proof stage on the form provided.
