THE MEDITERRANEAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL TRUST GRANTS TO ASSIST PUBLICATION

The Mediterranean Archaeological Trust, set up in 1959 for the promotion of the study of archaeology, invites applications for grants, made on a competitive basis, for expenses in 2006-7, in the preparation for publication of material from archaeological fieldwork in the Mediterranean world, excluding subventions to publishers. Within the terms of the Trust, priority may be given to Bronze Age subjects. Grants for any amount, however small, will be considered, provided they expedite publication. The grants do not normally exceed £3000.

Applications comprising a 2000-word-maximum description of the proposed work and an outline budget, together with two referees' names, should be sent no later than 15 January 2006, to:

Professor Sir John Boardman
(Mediterranean Archaeological Trust)
Ashmolean Museum
Oxford OX1 2PH
[or also by fax to 01865 278082; NOT by email]

The references (which are essential) should be sent direct by the referees (to meet the deadline) or accompany the application in a sealed envelope. Successful applicants will be informed by around the end of March 2006.

Postgraduate study in the Department of Archaeology School of Human and Environmental Sciences

Reading offers a wide range of interdisciplinary options in each of its postgraduate degree programmes, in a friendly department with an international reputation in teaching and research (RAE 5*, highest in the UK, with Oxford and Cambridge). We particularly emphasise integration of theoretical issues with rigorous practical approaches in a wide range of aspects in Prehistoric, Roman and Medieval Archaeology; Geoarchaeology and Environment; and Palaeo-diet and health. The Department is located in a new custom-designed building and interacts equally with the humanities and sciences. We have a lively cosmopolitan postgraduate student community. A number of bursaries and studentships are available. We offer the following programmes:

New from Antiquity Publications:

MEGALITHS FROM ANTIQUITY

The third volume of reprinted classic papers explores the theme of British and European megaliths. Thirty-six papers examine four principal themes on megalithic studies. The earliest monuments — the great tombs and dolmens— reveal the extent of megalithic variety. Papers range from Daniel's early studies of British dolmens to more recent debates; the perennial interest in Stonehenge and Avebury has figured prominently in ANTIQUITY and is brought fully up to date. The presence of timber and earth circles as precursors or alternatives to megalithic structures show further variety in ancient monument building. The final section, Beyond the Megaliths, through studies of ancient engineering, archaeoastronomy and sensory archaeology demonstrates the abiding interest in interpretations of function and meaning of the ancient stones. ISBN 0-9539762-2-X

Price: £18.99 (per volume) + £3.00 (£5.00 overseas) postage.

Price to ANTIQUITY subscribers: £15.39 + £3.00 (£5.00 overseas) postage

CELTIS FROM ANTIQUITY, the second volume of reprinted classic papers explores a central theme of European Archaeology. Twenty-five papers represent ancient and modern approaches to the study of the Celts; the debate over Celtic identity; key discoveries and reinterpretations in continental archaeology; fieldwork and debate in the Southern British Iron Age; fieldwork and debate in the Scottish Iron Age. Each section is introduced with a personal perspective from the editors to set the articles within current and future trends of Iron Age archaeology. ISBN 0-9539762-1-1

LANDSCAPES FROM ANTIQUITY, the first volume of reprinted classic papers explores a central archaeological theme: Landscapes from Antiquity. Twenty-four papers have been selected to represent ancient and modern landscape approaches, organized into thematic sections: Early studies of Fox and Curwen, aerial photography of Bradford, Crawford and St Joseph, survey method, integrated regional landscapes, physical, industrial, contested and experienced landscapes. Notes for Contributors

Antiquity aims to report new archaeological research, methods and issues of international significance in plain language to a broad academic and professional readership.

We ask prospective authors to consult previous issues of the journal and the full Notes for Contributors on our website at <http://antiquity.ac.uk/contnotes.html>.

Submissions for publication in the JOURNAL should be sent with a disc and hard copy to The Editor, Antiquity, King's Manor, York, YO1 7EP, UK, or by e-mail to editor@antiquity.ac.uk.

Text should be submitted in English in MS Word 2000 or a compatible program and have a maximum length of 5000 words. Please indicate the corresponding author. References should be in the Harvard format (Antiquity does not use footnotes or end-notes). For initial consideration, figures may be embedded in the Word file or submitted as low-resolution jpeg files, but please note our publication image requirements.

Papers submitted to the journal are peer-reviewed by two or more referees. The Editor aims to make a decision on whether the paper is to be accepted within four to six months of receipt.

Authors whose papers are declined are notified via e-mail by the editor, and we can normally pass on part or all of the referees' reports to assist feedback.

Authors whose papers are accepted may be asked to send an updated, revised text and will need to send figures of publication quality. These should be sent as hard copy photographs or drawings or as TIFF files at 600 dpi (colour or monochrome photographs) and EPS files at 1200 dpi (line drawings) on a CD-ROM or Zip disk. Authors may be asked if we can mount long tables and other data on our website.

Authors will be asked to contribute towards the cost of publishing colour images. The charge is £100 per page with colour images.

Authors receive a free PDF of their paper, and may order offprints at a charge of £0.75 each (orders must be for 25 offprints or multiples thereof).

Submissions for publication in the PROJECT GALLERY on the website (<http://antiquity.ac.uk/ProjGall/>) should be e-mailed to editor@antiquity.ac.uk as attachments. Text should be in MS Word and have a maximum length of 1000 words. Figures (colour or monochrome, maximum of 6 pictures) should be jpeg files at 72 dpi. Submissions for the Project Gallery are not peer-reviewed but the Editor may request changes before a submission is accepted. Authors will be asked to check their page before it goes live online.
