

SPACE OBJECT TRAFFIC CONTROL

STEPHEN H. KNOWLES

Naval Space Surveillance Center, Dahlgren, VA U.S.A.

ABSTRACT The task of avoiding collisions between orbiting objects requires more than a statistical description of the objects' positions. The paper describes the general procedures used for such cataloging, together with an indication of the accuracy required for orbital collision avoidance.