MODERN WRITERS, MODERN CONCERNS.

ROBERT FROST The Work of Knowing

RICHARD POIRIER, Rutgers University. This major reassessment relies on close readings of his best poems to penetrate the public persona and demonstrate why Frost should be ranked among the finest poets of his time. $11.95

AFTERJOYCE Studies in Fiction After Ulysses

ROBERT MARTIN ADAMS, University of California, Los Angeles. A discussion of James Joyce and his influence on contemporary fiction, emphasizing the way in which different authors (English, American, Italian, German, Spanish) combined elements of Joycean technique with elements derived from their own experience to create new effects. $10.00

FIVE TEMPERAMENTS Elizabeth Bishop, Robert Lowell, James Merrill, Adrienne Rich, John Ashbery

DAVID KALSTONE, Rutgers University. In examining the ways which five contemporary poets have found to write about their lives, Kalstone offers readings that are "at once evaluations and celebrations, discoveries and corrections of heresy."—John Malcolm Brinnin $10.95

THE MYSTERIES OF IDENTITY A Theme in Modern Literature

ROBERT LANGBAUM, University of Virginia. Blending intellectual history and literary criticism, Langbaum examines changing attitudes toward the question of identity in modern literature—specifically in the works of Wordsworth, Arnold, Eliot, Beckett, Yeats and Lawrence. $14.95

A FEAST OF WORDS The Triumph of Edith Wharton

CYNTHIA GRIFFIN WOLFF, University of Massachusetts. "Her book is a model of the sophisticated combination of psychological insight and literary sensibility."—R.W.B. Lewis. "Immensely satisfying."—Maureen Howard, New York Times Book Review. 8 photographs $15.95
