

FOLKWAYS RECORDS

A guide to the catalog of Folkways Records—World's largest collection of authentic Folk Music on records.

- FA AMERICANA series: draws upon the great wealth of folk music and songs which is the heritage of the people of the United States. Interpretations are by outstanding artists in the folk tradition of their culture.
- FC CHILDREN series: consists of folk songs, music, tales, literature, and their related subjects for use in showing the child his relation to the world that surrounds him.
- FD DANCES OF THE WORLD'S PEOPLES: On-the-spot recordings of folk dances throughout the world. Notes and description of dances are included.
- FE ETHNIC FOLKWAYS LIBRARY: is designed for general appeal as well as to meet educational standards in the fields of musicology, anthropology, sociology, the dance, etc.; it is of particular value to those interested in the study of human relations, because it makes available authentic musical and cultural data of the many different areas in the world.
- FG PERSONALITY series: allows leading authorities and collectors in the folklore and folk song field to make available their work to the public.
- FH AMERICAN HISTORICAL series: is a documentation of United States history through its folksongs and literature.
- FL LITERATURE series: is a collection of American and World literature, read by the authors themselves and/or compiled and discussed by leaders in the respective literary fields. The library consists of The Classics, World Literature, and Poetry.
- FM ETHNIC MONOGRAPH series: documents dealing with small areas of a culture, where the authority wants to illustrate a phase of culture without giving an over-all view point.
- FN TOPICAL series: the news and happenings of the modern world as reflected in its current, recently composed songs.
- FQ INSTRUCTION series: makes available, in oral form, language and music courses. These records and accompanying booklets give the student a complete key to the understanding and learning of the subject.
- FR RELIGIOUS series: records the actual praying rites of many peoples; religious services and rituals are made available in this series.
- FS SPECIAL series: draws upon related material from other media sources such as radio, TV, and movies, and makes this material available in recorded form.
- FSS STEREO series: Stereophonic sound, the latest electronic development, shown in its highest developed form, featuring material especially suited to the medium.
- FW INTERNATIONAL series: uses the vast wealth of folk music and song to present this heritage of the people of the world through recordings made by outstanding artists in the folk tradition of their cultures.
- FX SCIENCE series: presents actual sounds of natural and man made phenomena found on the earth, edited to reconstruct happenings through sounds.

More than 900 long-playing records from every corner of the earth.

FOLKWAYS—FIRST IN FOLK MUSIC

121 W.47 St. · New York 36, N.Y. · U.S.A.